THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

MONDAY, MAY 3, 1954 5:00 P.M.

The One Hundred Seventieth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in The Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, on Monday, May 3, 1954 at 5:00 P.M., in accordance with the Constitution and the Resolution of the last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Convention to order and opened the session with prayer.

A Quorum being present the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. Dr. John R. Huggins was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

The Standing Rules of Order that have been printed and distributed shall be the rules for the conduct of the 170th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee on Canons is presenting a report on changes on the Standing rules of order to come before convention. This report to be made Thursday after Item #18 under 19 (a).

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5:30 P.M. on Tuesday, May 4, 1954, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7:45 P.M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 5, 1954, at 9:30 A.M.

delphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Secretary reported further:

Alternates have not seats, or votes in Convention except when they register with the Assistant Secretary certifying they are authorized to take the place of the elected deputy.

The Secretary reported as follows:

During the past year the Secretary has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons as far as possible.

On December 22, 1953 the Parochial Reports were mailed and that on February 1st, 1954 when these reports were due only 112 of the 206 had been received. The Secretary would again stress the importance of making full returns on the Annual Report of the Diocese for the General Convention.

The Convention hereby expresses the thanks of the Diocese to Clarence Montgomery Brown, Esq., now retiring as chairman of the Committee on the Fund for the Episcopate, for the energy, ability and generosity with which for nearly ten years he has directed the affairs of the Committee. Perceiving the need of a permanent secretary, and of funds for office expense and promotion, he has continuously provided the sums required for these. By large annual gifts to the Fund itself he has been the chief means of trebling its size. The advertisement he has made of the purpose and importance of the Fund and of the policies of the Committee have attracted important legacies and will continue to be operative. Mr. Brown's work represents a major contribution, for which we are grateful, to the financial security of the Episcopate and the prosperity of the Diocese.

Mr. Francis J. Chesterman offered the following Resolution which was referred to The Committee on Resolutions:

WHEREAS, this Diocese has always manifested a deep and continuing interest in the welfare of its boys and young men; and

WHEREAS, the Boy Scout Movement carried on by the Boy Scouts of America under Commission from the Congress of the United States is worthy of the support of all Church people in that, (1) through its Cubbing activities among boys of 8 to 10 years requiring both father and mother participation, it is a constructive influence for the maintenance and continuance of the best in family life; (2) through its scouting activities among boys of 11 to 13 years, it presents the opportunity for boys to work and play together as a group, and to develop in them traits of character and habits of conduct that are a part of the Christian way of life; (3) through its explorer activities among boys and young men over 13 years of age in combining as they do the interest of the fathers with that of their sons, it builds a closer and helpful relationship between father and son during the difficult period of adolescence; and (4) as a movement, it recognizes the importance of, and fosters, the worship of Almighty God, vital religious experiences, and national patriotism; and WHEREAS, a new and more vital interest in the Boy Scout Movement among the Clergy and Laity of all religious faiths would aid in the solution of many of the problems confronting the boys and young men of this nation,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Diocese of Pennsylvania in convention assembled does hereby officially recognize as worthy of ever increasing interest and support, the Boy Scout Movement carried on by the Boy Scouts of America, and urges its communicants, its parishes and all of its organized groups to aid in the organization and operation of Cub, Scout and Explorer units wherever feasible. Scouting should be under the administrative direction of the local parish and considered as a part of the program of Christian Education to conserve, develop and win boys for the Church and to train them in character and useful, participating citizenship.

AND IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that the Department of Christian Education be asked to explore the program and find ways and means to promote the Scout program in the local parishes.

The Committee on Claims of Clergy to Seats reported that no Claims had been received.

The Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats reported that a Claim had been received but had subsequently been withdrawn.

The Report of the Commission on Music was read by the Rev. Wm. P. C. Loane, Chairman, who offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted (Appendix R, page 268):

Resolved, That the Commission on Music be continued, with power to fill vacancies or to add to its membership.

The Bishop of The Diocese then presented Mrs. Charles Myers, President of the Diocesan Branch of The Woman's auxiliary, who addressed the Convention concerning the work and plans of The Auxiliary.

On behalf of the Convention, Bishop Hart thanked Mrs. Myers for her address and through her all women of the Diocese for their splendid work carried on for The Church.

On Motion the Convention recessed for supper at 5:45 P.M. and for the casting of the First Ballot at 7:00 P.M. The polls were declared closed at 7:45 P.M.

At 8 P.M. a Diocesan Mass Meeting was held in The Church of The Holy Trinity, attended by the Deputies of The Convention and Members of the Diocese; the Clergy vested; the music was rendered by The Diocesan Choir; the Offering together with the Offering at The Communion Service amounting to $528.91 was designated by the Bishop for the expense of The Anglican Congress. The Bishop presented THE ANNUAL ADDRESS with statistics and spoke particularly concerning some of the matters contained in THE ADDRESS.

The Communion of Saints

Amen.

The Diocesan Convention is a gathering of the Clergy and Laity in a Diocese for the purposes of legislation and planning.

Two reports will be submitted to the Convention tomorrow which may cause extended debate. One is the report of the Committee on Canons. A Committee, consisting of Father Coonrad, the Chancellor and Mr. Harry C. Parker are suggesting certain changes in our Standing Rules of Order and in certain Diocesan Canons. I appreciate the thorough work of this Committee and hope that you will give their recommendations calm and thoughtful consideration. It may seem to you to be tiresome to consider Canons and Rules of Order, but your action concerning them does have a decided bearing on the life of the diocese. One amendment to the Constitution comes up for the second consideration—namely, the right of women to be delegates to this Convention. The job of the Committee is to see to it that the amendment is in proper form. It is up to you to say whether or not you want to adopt it as part of the Constitution of the Diocese.

The second resolution which may cause extended debate concerns the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America. Here again a Committee, headed by Father Green, has done a thorough job and they are presenting a resolution for your thoughtful consideration.

I wish that there was some way in which the members of this Convention could express themselves about the Compulsory Retirement of the Clergy at age 72. As the matter now stands, on and after January 1, 1957, all the clergy will have to retire from active service—unless the General Convention next year changes the Canon. A straw vote was taken on the question at the meeting of the House of Bishops last November and a large majority favored allowing the clergy to continue after age 72 in their present cure or elsewhere, provided it is approved by diocesan authorities. Many laymen have expressed vigorous opposition to this and have voiced the opinion that clergy, upon reaching the age of 72, should be allowed to serve elsewhere, but not to continue in their present cure. My own feeling is that the question should be thoroughly discussed now so that we will avoid coming to General Convention without a definite idea of what the Church wants done. I am sure that, if we leave this very important matter to the last minute and try to revise the Canon in the rush of General Convention, the result will be confusion worse confounded.

I suggest for your consideration changing the date of Convention from the first Monday in May to the first Monday in June. This would enable us to have the spring meetings of Convocations in May and questions of diocesan concern could then be referred to this Convention. As it is now, Convocations desiring to present possible new work to the diocese do not hold their spring meetings until after this Convention has met and adjourned.

I want to express my thanks to Mr. Clarence M. Brown and Mr. Spencer Ervin for their splendid work on the Committee for the Endowment Fund of the Episcopate. The Fund has grown from less than $100,000 to a present market value of over $350,000. During the past year we received a bequest of $25,000 for this Fund from Mr. Frank H. Moss. Mr. Moss was Vice-President of the Board of Trustees of the Church Foundation and served the diocese in many other ways. I miss him greatly. Mr. Ervin has placed the right emphasis on a strong Episcopate as essential for the continuing health and growth of the Church. It is conceivable that the Fund for the Episcopate could grow to such a size that the parishes would no longer be called upon for any financial support of the Episcopate, but this is such a remote possibility that I urge you to continue to keep this Fund before the people of the diocese, as a most worthy object of bequests or gifts. Mr. Brown has been most anxious to insure the continuance of the active work of this Committee and, therefore, after this Convention will become Honorary Chairman, his place as Chairman being taken by Mr. D. Alexander Wieland. Mr. Ervin's place as Vice-Chairman will be taken by Mr. Frederic C. Wheeler.

We have nine men who are graduating from Divinity Schools this year. For reasons which seem adequate to me, I am releasing three of these men to work elsewhere. This leaves us six men to fill the existing vacancies. We need additional men and I ask the clergy and laymen to do everything in their power to have our ablest young men consider the call to the Ministry.

This is not the time or place for me to give a travelogue. Already many of you have had to listen to the story of our trip to the Holy Land. It has often been said that one of the nicest things about a trip is getting home again. Certainly it was very thrilling to me to get home just in time for the luncheon for the Presiding Bishop. The luncheon was evidence of the fine work done by Mr. P. Blair Lee and his associates, both clerical and lay. The loyalty and devotion of the clergy and laity of this diocese is enough to gladden the heart of any bishop. Our trip had made me realize very keenly that the distinction between domestic and overseas work is only an administrative one. It has no other reality in the shrunken and divided world in which we live. I know that we need more funds to take advantage of the opportunities within our diocese, but I am glad that you have sacrificed local needs in order to give full support to the work of the National Church. I have been deeply moved by the spirit shown by clergy and laymen—in some instances already deeply involved in campaigns for their own parish needs—who have wanted to have a part in this General Convention appeal for capital needs. I was most touched by one of our clergy whose vestry had honestly thought that they could not take part in this national campaign because of their parish commitments. This priest wrote to his vestry, earnestly requesting them to reconsider and telling them of his own personal subscription which was a liberal one. With such leadership from the clergy, I am sure that this diocese will make a worthy response to this appeal of General Convention.

Naturally I am in full agreement with those who want to put great emphasis on home missions. Our first responsibility is to do everything within our power to make our own parish a more vital Christian fellowship. One of the ways in which you can do this is to assist your rector in keeping in touch with your parishioners, especially those who are on the outer fringe of the parish life. On Easter Day I was at St. Paul's, Levittown for the ten o'clock service. The church was crowded and a goodly number turned away. I was impressed by the number of people who spoke to me after the service and said, "I am a member of such and such a parish in this or some other diocese, but we have recently moved to this neighborhood." I realize that Levittown is a special case, but in one of our old and settled parishes, where a new rector came within the past year, a layman said to me, "Do you know what's happened in our parish? Our new rector, during his first month, called on every sick and shut-in person in the parish. Some of them had not been called upon by anyone from our parish for over five years" You may say, "This is the priest's duty." True, but I am glad to say that this vestryman felt that he shared the responsibility for this tragic omission. I am also glad to note that some vestries have active committees to visit not only their own parishioners, but newcomers in their areas. One of the many things that I hope to do at our Conference Center is to have conferences for vestrymen where they can exchange ideas on this and other things relative to parish work.

Possession of our Conference Center was given to the diocese by Mrs. S. Griswold Flagg on April 1st. A Committee of seven laymen, headed by Mr. Lawrence Saunders, spent a busy month making the minimum alterations in order to prepare the Center for our use. I am sure that you join with me in expressing our gratitude to Mrs. Flagg and her late husband for their generous gift of this beautiful estate. I am confident that we will find this Center to be one of the most valuable and useful of our facilities. It will be necessary for us to have at the start an organization which we can readily change in the light of our experience. I have asked the Committee of seven laymen to continue for the time being in charge of the business administration of the Center. I have appointed the President of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Chairman of our Department of Christian Education and the Executive Secretary of the Diocese to have charge of arranging conferences and setting up the policies of the Center. I have appointed the Rev. James Ludwig as Executive Director. Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig are now in residence. The first diocesan event at the Center was the Woman's Auxiliary Program Planning day held there last Friday. Our Youth Convention will be held there this Saturday. We have set Sunday afternoon, September 19th, as the tentative date for the formal dedication of the Center. By that time we hope that someone will come up with the proper name for the Center. Meanwhile we plan to designate it simply as Diocesan Conference Center.

TWO WORLD CONFERENCES

During the summer two great World Conferences will be held in the United States. The Anglican Congress will meet in Minneapolis, Minnesota from August 4th to 13th. This Congress, unlike Lambeth Conference, will include Priests and Laymen as well as Bishops. The Congress is not a legislative body, but it will provide an opportunity for members of the Anglican Communion all over the world to discuss their common problems and by interchange of ideas to strengthen the whole fellowship. I regret that the time of year will make it difficult for us to welcome some of our distinguished visitors to this diocese and to have an opportunity to hear them. Bishop Stewart of Jerusalem plans to reach Philadelphia on Monday, July 26th and perhaps we can arrange for him to speak somewhere in the diocese before he goes on to New York for his Sunday appointment.

The Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches is scheduled to convene on the campus of Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, August 15th to 31st. The main theme of this Conference is "Christ: The Hope of the World." This general theme will be divided into such topics as: Our Oneness in Christ and Our Disunity as Churches. Christians in the struggle for World Community. Racial and Ethnic Tensions. The Mission of the Church to those outside her life.

The Mission of the Church to those who are outside her own life is a new phrasing of the somewhat shop worn word—Evangelism. Everyone is for Evangelism in general but often individuals do little about it. The call to Mission, sent out by the World Council, states, "We have to confess that the normal life of our congregations does not express the truth that to be a Christian is necessarily to be involved in a mission to the whole world. The average congregation is apt to be an introverted community which does not think primarily of its obligation to bring the knowledge of Christ to its whole neighborhood and to the whole world." This will be the first major world Christian conference in the modern ecumenical series to be held in the United States. The late Archbishop Wm. Temple was wont to call the Ecumenical Movement "The great new fact of our time—one great ground of hope for the coming days." Let us pray that we may be led to a deeper and clearer knowledge of the Faith and a better understanding of our Brethren from whom we are separated.

Brethren, we hold this Convention at a time when we recognize that ours must be a crusading faith. The world will not be a Christian world unless we are willing to live and sacrifice to make it more Christian than it is today. May God guide us in our deliberations tomorrow. May He enlarge our vision of the task before us both within our diocese and beyond its borders. May He increase our understanding of the redemptive fellowship in which we are bound together. And may He use us, unworthy as we are, as instruments of His will in the building of His Kingdom.

The Standing Committee gave its advice to the Bishop concerning the deposition of the Rev. Robert D. Morris.

The matter of the establishment of a new parish at Hilltown, Bucks County, was presented to the Standing Committee in a petition addressed to the Bishop and the Standing Committee by residents of Bucks County, not far from Hilltown, stating their desire to be organized as a mission under the name of Good Shepherd Mission, Hilltown. The petition had been approved by the Convocation of Norristown, with the consent of the Convocation of Germantown, by the Bishop and by the Department of Missions.

Bishop Hart, according to Diocesan Canon IX, Section III, notified the Rectors and Secretaries of the Vestries of the three parishes whose places of worship are nearest the proposed new parish, the three parishes involved being St. Paul's, Doylestown; Emmanuel, Quakertown; and Holy Trinity, Lansdale; and invited the said Rectors and Vestries to meet with him and the Standing Committee at the next meeting of the Committee for a conference as to the wisdom of the proposed enterprise at that particular site. The Rector and Wardens of Holy Trinity, Lansdale, appeared before the Standing Committee and stated that they had no objections to the proposed establishment and approved it. A letter was received from the Secretary of the Vestry of Emmanuel Church, Quakertown, stating that the Advisory Board of the Church approved the proposed establishment. No representative of St. Paul's, Doylestown, was present but that Church had notified the Bishop of their approval.

After discussion and upon motion, it was agreed that the Standing Committee should advise the Bishop to proceed with the establishment of the proposed new mission, to be called Good Shepherd Mission, Hilltown, in accordance with Diocesan Canon IX, Section V.

The Bishop having given his approval, the Standing Committee approved applications from the following for permission to organize as a parish:

St. Alban Mission, Newtown Square
St. Philip Mission, Philadelphia
Trinity Mission, Solebury

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the Church of the Incarnation, Drexel Hill, to place a mortgage not to exceed $25,000 on the Church property, in order to liquidate the now existing indebtedness of the Church and to make needed repairs and improvements on the Church property.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the Church of the Redeemer, Springfield, to increase the bank loan in the amount of $18,000 already approved by the Standing Committee to $30,000, because of increased expenses in connection with the construction of a Parish House.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the Church of the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, to place a $20,000 mortgage on the Church building, in order to complete payments on the replacement entrance to the Church.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to All Saints Church, Wynnewood, to mortgage any or all of the real property of the Church, including the present Church building, the Rectory, the Fellowship House, and the proposed new Parish House, to secure (1) a construction loan in an amount not to exceed $125,000 to finance the construction of the proposed new Parish House, and (2) a permanent mortgage in an amount not to exceed $125,000 to pay off the construction loan upon the completion of the Parish House.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. Stephen's Church, Clifton Heights, to sell its rectory at Baltimore Avenue and Church Street, Clifton Heights, the proceeds of the sale to be used toward the building of a new rectory.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the conveyance by St. Luke's Church, Germantown, to the Church of the Holy Nativity in Philadelphia of the real estate upon which the buildings of the Church of the Holy Nativity in Philadelphia are located, such real estate being the entire tract now owned by St. Luke's Church, Germantown, located at the corner of 21st Street and 65th Avenue, Philadelphia.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, to (1) place a purchase money mortgage in the amount of $30,000 upon its new rectory at 1313 Wyngate Road, Wynnewood, Penna., and (2) increase the existing mortgage on its old rectory at 36 Ardmore Avenue, Ardmore, Penna., from $10,000 to $20,000, the moneys to be used for the alteration of the old rectory, the choir building, the Church, and the parish house.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the transfer by the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, of the Boys Camp at Neshaminy in Bucks County to The Church Foundation, it being understood that The Church Foundation will hold this real estate for the use of Trinity Memorial Church at 22nd and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, with the understanding that if Trinity Memorial Church does not remain a parish, the disposition of the real estate rests with the Bishop, who may use it for boys' work or sell it, in which latter case the proceeds may be used for boys' work elsewhere.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. David's Church, Manayunk, to remodel and convert the Church's property at 152 Dupont Street, Manayunk, into a rectory for the parish, at an estimated cost of $10,000, it being understood that the parish now has over $5,000 in cash in hand and will add to this the proceeds of the sale of the present rectory at 154 Krams Avenue; the Committee further giving its consent to the financing of the remainder of the cost with a mortgage.

The Standing Committee approved the plan of St. Martin's Church, Radnor, to incur a maximum indebtedness of $130,000, composed of (1) a present unpaid balance of $4,152.11 on a loan of $6,650 to rebuild the Church organ; (2) the estimated cost of capital improvements to the Church property in Radnor and its Chapel in Ithan, and fund-raising, amounting to $120,000; and (3) a contingency account of $5,847.89; it being understood that St. Martin's Church has been conducting a capital fund campaign since April 4, 1954, with $146,000 in pledges received to date, the sum of $20,000 being in hand from prepaid pledges, and all pledges being payable within three years.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. Martin's Church, Radnor, to place a mortgage on the mortgageable properties of the Church in the amount of any loans made by The Pennsylvania Company for Banking and Trusts, which have not been repaid by the Church within three years from the date of borrowing, under an arrangement made with The Pennsylvania Company for an open line of credit of $80,000 with interest at 4%.

APPENDIX G

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE FOR THE YEAR 1953

The report of the treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1953 is submitted herewith. This report is more detailed than the one prepared by Charles S. Rockey & Company, certified public accountants, based on their audit of our financial books and records, a copy of which may be examined at the Church House.

For the sake of simplicity, round numbers are used in the following comments.

Once again we started the year with pledges amounting to less than the missionary budget although there was an improvement over 1952 since the shortage was $23,500 as compared to $29,000. This unwise practice, which may in the future bring us to the end of the year with a deficit, was followed because, historically, we have been able to meet our commitments through under-spending and a generous over-payment of proportionate shares by a group of parishes and missions possessed of a liberal spirit of giving. The past year was no exception. We are solvent because we spent $12,000 less than anticipated and 107 parishes and missions gave $19,400 in excess of their accepted proportionate shares. To these, the Diocese should be grateful. We regret that thirteen churches gave $3,200 less than their acceptances. This was an improvement over 1952 when there were nineteen churches $5,400 short.

The carry-over of $12,000 will be added to missionary funds from which appropriations are made for work in the Diocese. In 1953, we loaned $10,000 to St. Paul's, Levittown, for new construction, and $16,000 to St. Peter's, Broomall, for an addition to the present church building.

Reference was made in the 1952 report to a loan of $40,000 to St. Thomas', West Philadelphia. It is a pleasure to state that $7,600 was paid in 1953 against this obligation.

The work of the treasurer and assistant treasurer has been simplified by the faithful and intelligent performance of the staff at the Church House. They deserve the commendation of all.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON, Treasurer

EDWARD M. MANN, Ass't Treasurer

APPENDIX H

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, PROPERTY AND PROMOTION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1953 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Property and the Department of Promotion are sub departments under Finance. Their Reports are separate.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the chair and its report will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1953, have been paid in full. The Diocese had accepted the $295,322.00 assigned by the National Council.

The Treasurer's Report is most gratifying showing the breakdown of the "Givings." Mr. Drayton, Treasurer, and Mr. Mann, Assistant Treasurer, give personal interest to the Finances of the Diocese and is helpful in the discussions which take place at the meetings of the Department.

The Chairman expresses his appreciation to the officers of the Diocese and the members of the Department for their splendid cooperation during the past year.

EDWARD B. CLAY,

Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

Progress is being made surely though slowly. It is necessary that a copy of the Accountants annual examination be sent to the Secretary of the Diocese. Often this report contains recommendations for handling Church accounting which are helpful, and suggestions to the Vestry and Accounting Warden or Treasurer that will simplify and clarify his work. Some Church Officials seem to think the annual Parochial Report covers this field—it cannot and does not. Spring of 1953 resulted in a larger number of low cost audits being made at the Church House by Chas. S. Rockey & Co. than ever before. A few parishes however treat this portion of Canon XVI as though it were optional. It is not optional at all, and your Vestry and the members of your Parish are entitled to a report of this nature. Likewise, Vestries generally, are realizing that the members of their Parishes, are entitled to a full observance of all reasonable safeguards and are bonding all responsible officers.

Adequate fire insurance is of particular concern to this committee. In the case of Mission properties the proper amount of insurance is continually checked by the Church Foundation and the correct amount of insurance is maintained. In the case of Parishes however the condition varies—as an example, February 9th of this year a questionnaire was sent to all Parishes asking information on this matter. At the time of making out this report 118 replies have been received and 8 of these reports reveal that insufficient insurance is being carried. That portion of the Parochial Report made up by the Accounting Warden or Treasurer contains specific questions relating to appraised values and amounts of insurance carried. There are instances where this information is not given.

Unless your insurance policies are reviewed annually or at the most, each two years, and the cost of replacement of your buildings checked against these policies it may result in dangerous complacency on the part of a Vestry toward this responsibility.

EDWARD B. CLAY,

Chairman

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

During the year 1953 contracts were signed for the building of churches at St. Andrew, Somerton, St. Paul Levittown, and for an addition to St. Peter, Broomall; while close supervision was given by our Engineer to the building of the new Church, with Parish House facilities, by the Vicar and Mission Committee of Holy Redeemer (Polish).

We have cooperated in rebuilding the North portion of St. Thomas, West Philadelphia, containing the Church and Parish House facilities, and in rehabilitating the buildings and grounds of the Church and Parish House of Incarnation, Morrisville; with the Mission Committee at Quakertown in arranging new parking for Emmanuel Mission; with the Mission Committee in the purchase of additional land for parking at St. Philip, Oreland.

Repairs have been arranged or supervised at the Rectory and Garage at Hulmeville; the Chancel of Epiphany, Royersford; the Rectory and Church at St. Cyprian; the heating system at St. Ambrose and at St. Barnabas, Kensington; the Rectory of St. Mary, Chester, and the Church at Trinity, Gulph Mills.

We assisted in procuring a Rectory for the Vicar at St. Andrew, Somerton, and in the building of the new Rectory at St. John the Evangelist, Essington, and are presently engaged in trying to secure abatement of back taxes on vacant land at St. George, Richmond, and to obtain exemption for the future, all of which may require Court action and has been pending for some months.

The Church House has been maintained in good condition.

Department of Property

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

In co-operation with the Philadelphia Council of Churches the Publicity Department secured free time on Radio Station KYW for the Episcopal Hour, consisting of a series of 10 mid-week programs prepared by Bryan Green. Some 300 pieces of "fan mail" were received commending the program and requesting printed copies of Bryan Green's sermons.

Church people would greatly help the cause of wider coverage on radio, television, and in the press if they would take the trouble to write in appreciation and commendation of the various media when time or space are given to something relating to the Episcopal Church. Those who took the trouble to write to the radio station about the Episcopal Hour have helped to pave the way for another such series for which negotiations are now being made.

THE CHURCH NEWS continues to grow. The 24 page October issue with special material on the work of the Diocese in preparation for the Every Member Canvass was the largest issue printed for many years. The Field Department ordered 12,000 extra copies as part of its program of aid to the Every Member Canvass in all of our parishes and missions.

The regular circulation is now over 8,500 copies per month. The subscriptions are steadily and substantially increasing in number. The featuring of the two pages devoted to the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, replacing their own Woman's Auxiliary Calendar, has brought in some new subscribers, but the greatest factor in the increase has been through Parish Subscription Lists. More and more parishes and missions are sending in such lists; but there are still many to be heard from.

We are less than half way to the realization of the goal for which we strive: "A copy of THE CHURCH NEWS in the home of every church family in the Diocese." Clergy and parish workers are asked to help us to reach this goal. The price is still $1.00 per year and the quality of the magazine maintains its high standard.

R. MARSHALL TRUITT,

Chairman

REPORT TO THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

In 1953 the Department had two specific objectives, the first of which was the development of the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work. Your Department's Co-chairman initiated the new plans together with the assistance of the following Convocational leaders: James F. Noble, Germantown; David L. German, North Philadelphia; William B. McIlwaine, South Philadelphia; Reginald S. Martyn, West Philadelphia; Henry C. Beck, Chester, and W. Bruce Cashmore, Norristown.

Rectors and Vicars were asked to appoint "Keymen" to serve on the Committee as liaison between the National Council, the Diocese and the Parishes and Missions. There has been an eighty-five percent response.

Four Meetings were held at which the National and Diocesan Programs were presented and discussed: February, at Trinity Memorial Church, addressed by Robert D. Jordan, Director of the National Council's Department of Promotion; May at The Episcopal Academy: The Rev. C. Edward Berger, D.D., Rector of St. Anne's Church, Annapolis, Maryland, outlined "The Maryland Plan of Giving"; September, at The Philadelphia Divinity School, an inspirational address by Col. Carl V. Hoffman, Provincial Chairman and, November, at The Episcopal Academy, The Rev. Howard Harper, the Executive Secretary, described the work of the Committee.

Emphasis was laid on the Advent Corporate Communion for men and an initial effort was made to secure an annual Corporate Gift to the Bishop to be used at his personal discretion. Although the 1953 Offering was small the Committee feels that an excellent start has been made.

At the end of the year Mr. Cashmore was appointed Diocesan Chairman and Mr. Martyn was appointed Vice-chairman.

The second objective of the Department was to give wider publicity to the National Church's full program for advanced work with special emphasis on the tremendous missionary opportunities in our own Diocese. With this in mind your Department outlined a "Four Point Program," initiated by sending the Co-chairman and Mr. Cashmore to the Provincial Conference of Diocesan leaders at Seabury House in June. To further the work the Schwenksville Conference for Training Speakers was held over the week-end of September 12th and 13th. The Program included:

(1) The preparation of a Film-strip summarizing work in the Diocese and graphically showing the meager per capita giving for Church work. This Film-strip was widely used and is available upon request at The Church House.

(2) The Department underwrote 12,000 copies of the October issue of The Church News which, thanks to the Editor, devoted eight pages to a similar story. Included as an outline of "God's Share"—based on "The Maryland Plan." This guide to Christian "Giving" was received with considerable interest. An outstanding result was at Holy Trinity Church, West Chester.

(3) In October the Department conducted nineteen Area Meetings for lay people in various sections of the Diocese. These were led by men trained at Schwenksville. There was a uniform Program and were, on the whole, well received although the attendance was very poor in some areas. The same Program was also presented at several meetings of Convocation.

(4) Finally, the Department through its Speakers Bureau, supplied men qualified to assist in preparing for the Every Member Canvass and to address various Services and Meetings to further its success. The result in one Parish alone would justify its work. St. Simeon's Church held its first Every Member Canvass in eighteen years. A goal of $12,900 was set; Pledges totalling $17,500 were received.

The Department is grateful for the cooperation of the clergy and laity. A most encouraging development is the increasingly large number of competent people who are becoming actively interested in its work.

The Department respectfully requests a slight increase in the appropriation for 1954—the sum of $2,500.00.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The year 1953 was one of such great accomplishment that we look forward from it with high optimism. During that year a new church, St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton, was completed and Consecrated and now has a flourishing congregation under splendid leadership. Our mission church in Broomall, St. Peter's, began construction which will double the capacity both of the church and the parish house facilities; both of which are sorely needed. Ground was broken and construction began on the splendid lot given to us by the Levit Corporation in an excellent location in Levittown. That church, St. Paul's, Edgely-Levittown, will be Consecrated Easter Sunday, 1954. With the help of the diocese the congregation of Holy Redeemer Mission, Richmond, (a Polish congregation) have built and nearly completed in 1953 an excellent and adequate church on the site of the old Redeemer Church. Nearly all of the labor has been done by the vicar, the Rev. Edward M. Bak, and men of the congregation. The congregation of St. John's, Essington, with the help of the diocese in buying the material and using largely volunteer labor, began construction on the property adjoining the church of an excellent two story dwelling to be used as a rectory. The diocese made major repairs on St. Mary's Vicarage, Chester; putting the house in excellent condition for the new vicar.

Other improvements in mission property during the year have included new sidewalks at St. Monica's, the rebuilding of the Sanctuary walls at Epiphany, Royersford and repairs to the heating system of St. Barnabas' Mission.

Three missions have so developed in strength that they are able to come to the Convention in May, 1954, asking for parochial status. They are: Trinity, Solebury; St. Alban's, Newtown Square; and St. Philip's Memorial, Philadelphia. Another of our missions has more than doubled its pledged income from the 1952 to the 1953 Every Member Canvass. Our mission at Gulph Mills has had a priest assigned to it as part-time vicar and the mission is growing.

St. Paul's Mission, North Penn, has been put under the cure of the rector of the Church of the Advocate and the members of the mission voluntarily became communicants of the Church of the Advocate. The Church of the Advocate is now operating a Church School at St. Paul's, North Penn.

On February 15, 1953, a mission was opened in a school house at Hilltown. It has been named Good Shepherd Mission. The congregation expressed a desire to be given a missionary quota so $200.00 was assigned and was gladly accepted.

Vicars appointed during the year have been: the Rev. Harris E. Baldwin, Jr. to St. Mark's, Honey Brook and St. John's, Pequea; the Rev. Huibert R. DeMeester to Christ Church, Eddington; the Rev. George R. Kahlbaugh to St. Bartholomew's, 25th and Lehigh; the Rev. James R. McDowell to Trinity, Gulph Mills; the Rev. Charles E. Miller to St. Mary's, Chester; the Rev. Daniel B. Stevick to Grace, Hulmeville and All Saints, Fallsington; and the Rev. Kenneth C. Werner to St. Andrew's, West Vincent and St. Mary's, Warwick.

The Department extends its deepest sympathy to the Rev. Harry R. Johnson, Jr. on the passing into Eternal Life of his beloved wife Nancy.

J. GILLESPIE ARMSTRONG,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

We were sorry to hear last Fall that Dean Lyford had decided not to accept another term as dean of the Chester Convocation. During the four years he was in office the Convocation continued to develop most successfully and the result of his excellent leadership will be felt for many years to come. Since the new dean did not take office until the end of October, the following report is really the work accomplished in our convocation under the guidance of the Rev. Mr. Lyford.

With the retirement of the Rev. Mr. McKinley, who served this convocation so faithfully for many years, some regrouping of missions was deemed advisable in the southern part of the convocation. Ascension, Parksburg, is now being ministered to by a very able lay reader, Mr. Alfred W. Degerberg. We are carefully watching this mission in determining its future.

At Ascension Mission, in West Chester, things are moving forward very nicely and the decision to build a new church in West Chester four years ago proved to have been a wise one.

Things seem to be happening at St. Albans Church, Newtown Square. The congregation there is rapidly increasing and the Every Member Canvass last Fall was so successful that the mission has asked for permission to become an independent parish.

St. Andrew's, West Manayunk, under the leadership of Mr. Sheley seems to be coming along very nicely. The average attendance in Church last year was thirty persons per Sunday.

St. Andrews, West Vincent, shows some real growth. Their first vicar, the Rev. Kenneth Werner, is now occupying the house which was bought for him and plans are being made for a parish house.

St. Cyril's, Coatesville, where Father Ferrell is the vicar will be the object of some intensive study for the coming year. The mission property is in poor state of repair and a committee of the convocation is working closely with the vicar on deciding the future of the mission.

Under Mr. Battins' leadership St. James, Green Ridge continues to grow, while not spectacularly the situation seems to be quite healthy and promising.

St. John's, Compass, is now being serviced by the vicar of St. Mark's, Honeybrook. It is one of the older missions in our Convocation and while no particular growth is expected there the church fills a definite need in that community.

St. John's, Concord has shown considerable growth during the last few years, and the future seems quite promising. The Reference Committee of the Convocation is studying this mission and their request for a resident minister. At present the vicar there also serves St. James Church in Green Ridge.

St. John's Church, Essington, seems to have taken on a new lease on life and under the very able leadership of their vicar they are now building a rectory, which is nearing completion. Mr. Johnson also serves St. Luke's, Eddystone and during the comparatively short time he has been there he has endeared himself to the members of this church.

The chances of St. Mark's, Honeybrook, becoming a parish seem to be more promising every day and we hope that under the leadership of the new vicar, the Rev. Mr. Baldwin we hope that before long this dream can be accomplished. The retirement of Mr. Wilcox there was very keenly felt and the excellent work which he did in this mission as well as St. Mary's, Warwick, will long be remembered.

St. Mary's Church, in Chester, was taken back by the diocese last year as a diocesan mission. The new vicar is very active and the work is progressing nicely. The diocese spent a little over $2000 last year in fixing up the rectory.

St. Mary's Church in Warwick, which for many years was grouped together with St. Mark's in Honeybrook is now being serviced by the vicar of St. Andrew's Church, West Vincent. With the communicant strength of 64 this mission, while not large, is doing a good piece of work in that part of the Convocation.

St. Peter's Church, in Broomall, due to the crowded condition of the present building found it necessary to enlarge their Church. The work is well under way and should be completed in the very near future. The mission has had a very steady and healthy growth under the leadership of their present vicar.

No report of the Convocation could be complete without mentioning the excellent work of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation. As in the years past they continue to be a tremendous inspiration and to them we are indeed indebted for their loyalty, devotion and generosity.

Before closing this report I also would like to express my thanks to the secretary-treasurer, Mr. Robert MacDougall, for his great help and the other members of the executive committee who are doing their share to lighten the work of the dean of the Convocation.

Dean

All sums of money raised for a building project are to be turned over to treasurer of the Diocese.

During the years 1952 and 1953 the women of the Convocation have had the privilege of sharing in the physical growth of St. Peter's, Broomall, to meet the challenge of a growing community. The $4,000.00 which we have raised has helped to provide adequate accommodation for the new families joining this Parish.

This year $2,000.00 is to go toward the Rectory of St. John the Evangelist in Essington. The cost of a lovely Rectory has been cut to a minimum due to the loyalty and industry of the congregation, who so far have done all the actual labor themselves.

The Emergency Fund, amounting to $1,000.00, raised during the last two years, has done yeoman service where repairs and Rectory needs created an emergency.

The Spring and Fall meetings were held at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr in May, and in October at St. Paul's, Chester. Both Parishes have given us delightful hospitality, and our appreciation and gratitude go to them both. The only disappointment was in a smaller attendance at these meetings. I hope the delegates and Presidents of Auxiliaries in the Convocation, will arrange to have a goodly number present at the Spring meeting on May 20th, at Holy Comforter, Aronomink.

Dean Lyford, after four years of devoted service to the Convocation, resigned this fall. We shall miss him very much. I feel we are most fortunate in the choice of the new Dean, the Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel, Jr., Rector of St. George's Church, Ardmore. Let us give him a warm welcome and our full support.

MARIE W. HOFFMAN,
President

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The year 1953 has seen many changes and much encouraging growth in the Convocation. The following clergymen have moved to other Dioceses: The Rev. Carroll McC. Bates who has been succeeded at St. Gabriel's by The Rev. Roland F. Lindsay; The Rev. Percy J. Brown who has been succeeded at All Saints, Torresdale by The Rev. Stuart A. L. Thomas; The Rev. E. Clarendon Hyde who has been succeeded at Grace Church, Hulmeville and All Saints, Fallsington by The Rev. Daniel B. Stevick, and The Rev. John Wilkins, formerly Curate at St. Luke's. The Rev. Huibert R. DeMeester became Vicar of Christ Church, Eddington and The Rev. John F. Hardwick and The Rev. James E. Imler, Jr. have joined the staffs as curates at Grace Church and St. Mark's respectively. A new institution has been established by the Houston Foundation as a home for retired clergy and their wives and is located within the Convocation. The Rev. Philemon F. Sturges has been appointed Chaplain of the home at Drumm Moir.

Two meetings of Convocation have been held—one at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill on May 19th at which the Rev. S. Paul Musselman, Executive Secretary, Division of Urban-Industrial Church Work, Department of Christian Social Relations of the National Council, was the principal speaker. The October meeting was held at St. Mark's, Frankford, with the Rev. Kenneth H. Anthony of Holy Trinity, West Chester speaking on "Christian Living Through Group Life," and Mrs. Dora Chapman of the National Council and Episcopal Church News, speaking on "Teen Age Problems in the Cradle." Both meetings were well attended.

Concerning our missions there is much that is encouraging to report. As of January 1, 1954 Trinity, Solebury became self-supporting and intends to apply for parochial status at this year's Convention. The work there has grown steadily and soundly under the able leadership of the Rev. Walter K. Malone.

St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton, reporting 36 new communicants, 35 new families, 42 additional children in the Church School, plus an adult class of 45 and $3,000 increase in income should soon become self-supporting. The new Church was completed and formerly opened by Bishop Hart on November 29th and is constantly drawing new members.

St. Paul's, Edgely-Levittown is growing so fast that it is hard to keep a record of its growth. Ground for the new Church was broken in June and by September the foundations were laid. Under the energetic leadership of the Rev. Stanley A. Powell, Jr., the people of St. Paul's launched a money raising campaign which realized in gifts and pledges over $24,000. The corner stone was laid on Sunday, June 28, 1953 and additional money was raised for a new organ which was purchased in time for the Christmas services. The Church will be consecrated by Bishop Hart on Easter Sunday and the first confirmation class in the new Church will be presented on that day. Plans have been made to hold the May Convocation meeting at this new Church site.

On February 2nd it was recommended by the Department of Missions that a full time man be placed at Christ Church, Eddington. The Rev. Huibert R. DeMeester and his family moved into the rectory in June. Since their arrival the Church has taken on new life and shown signs of a steady and encouraging growth.

The Rev. Daniel B. Stevick took charge of the work at Grace Church, Hulmeville and All Saints, Fallsington in mid-September. There has already been a noticeable response to his work there and the prospects for the future are encouraging. With added facilities at Fallsington, residents of Fairless Hills should be encouraged to make All Saints their Church. In a matter of months Levittown houses will be built close to Hulmeville. We are therefore strategically located in both these places and should see a decided advance in the next twelve months.

We are indebted as usual to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown for its continued help and support and wish to extend our thanks to Mrs. Henry Cocker and her officers and ladies, also to Dr. M. Moir for the use of their grounds for the Annual Garden Day.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown endeavors to meet the challenging demands of these changing times.

During 1953 we have given the sum of $1316.25 to further the work at St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton; St. Paul's, Edgely; All Saints, Fallsington and Grace Church, Hulmeville. Further details are found in the Treasurer's Report.

Four stated meetings were held during the 1953 season.

Educational Day was held on January 27th, at Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg. Mrs. Elwood Haines and Miss Helene Schnurbush of the National Council spoke on the Christian Living Conferences.

Devotional Day, March 17th, was observed at Zion Church. Meditations were conducted by Mrs. Roland Whitehurst, member of the Board of Trustees of the National Cathedral Association.

At the afternoon session, the Rev. E. Clarendon Hyde spoke on "Fairless Hills as of Now." The Rev. Stanley A. Powell presented "Levittown—an Adventure in Missionary Planning."

The Annual Meeting was held at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, on May 19th. Informative and inspirational addresses were given by Mrs. Alfred M. Chapman, member of the National Council and the Rev. G. Paul Musselman, National Council Secretary of Urban Industrial Church Work. Mrs. Chapman spoke on "Education in the Church" and Mr. Musselman emphasized the urban church.

Garden Day, on June 9th, was known as "A Come and See Tour" of "Druim Moir" the Houston estate in Chestnut Hill, now the new church home for retired clergy and wives. We are indebted to our Diocesan President, Mrs. Charles Myers, who served as Chairman, and to everyone who supported this outstanding success. Net proceeds amounted to $902.17.

Our Fall Meeting was held on October 20th, at St. Mark's Church, Frankford. Speakers on this occasion were the Rev. Kenneth H. Anthony, Rector of Holy Trinity Church, West Chester, and Mrs. Dora P. Chapman of the National Council. Mr. Anthony spoke on the Church's new curriculum and Mrs. Chapman's subject concerned "Youth."

A sincere "thank you" and our grateful appreciation to the women of Germantown Convocation for their interest and assistance in furthering the work of our Convocation.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The most exciting event in the Convocation of Norristown is the establishment of the new Mission at Hilltown to be known as Good Shepherd. To date there are some twenty-six families enrolled. Services are being held in the Leidytown School which the group eventually hopes to purchase. The spade work on this new venture has been done by the former Dean, Dr. Groton, who continues to give the present Dean magnificent assistance as he is able.

The Mission at Gulph Mills has for the first time in many years a clergyman in charge. The Rev. James McDowell, Chaplain of the Episcopal Academy, has been taking services there since September and until he was priested in December had the able assistance of the Rev. Dr. Franklin J. Clark. Attendance has greatly increased and a new burst of life is much in evidence.

The Mission at Royersford continues to function under the very able leadership of its lay reader, Mr. Harold Kellogg. An Every Member Canvass was held for the first time in many years and the Mission has done much to rehabilitate its church fabric with some assistance from the Diocese.

Both the Missions at Oreland and at Quakertown have moved to provide adequate parking facilities and Oreland is even now in the midst of a campaign to raise a building fund which will give them the new church which they so sorely need.

Plymouth Meeting continues to grow by leaps and bounds and Willow Grove to move along at a steady pace.

In general, all the Missions in the Convocation are in a healthy condition and show an admirable willingness to face their own problems and meet their own needs with a minimum of assistance and direction from the Diocese and the Dean.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation continues to do its good work, helping out with new rectories. Their current project is to raise money for a building fund for a rectory at Gulph Mills which continued growth of the Mission will make essential.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Norristown held two regular meetings, two Educational Days and one area meeting.

The May meeting was at Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills. The Auxiliary met its pledge for $1,142.00 to pay for kitchen equipment, and other permanent fixtures in the rectory at St. Jude and the Nativity, Plymouth Meeting. Reports on the work at Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills and Epiphany Mission, Royersford were encouraging. These missions, dormant for years, have come to life under new leadership. A committee from Hilltown came to report the beginning of a mission.

The October meeting took place at All Saints Church, Norristown 26 of the 27 parishes were represented. They were asked to accept their pledges for the Gulph Mills Rectory Building Fund. When all pledges have been received receipt cards will be distributed and each auxiliary will present its card as an offering at the May Convocation. The May meeting will be at St. Paul's Memorial Church, Oaks.

Education Days were held at St. Peter's Glenside and Valley Forge Memorial Chapel.

All Saints, Norristown were hostesses to five surrounding auxiliaries for an area meeting.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The May meeting of the Convocation for the year 1953 was held at St. Ambrose Church, and the October meeting at St. Paul's, Aramingo.

We record the passing of two former rectors, the Rev. John K. Shryock, Ph.D., late rector of Grace and the Incarnation, and for several years Dean of this Convocation, also the Rev. George R. Miller, for many years rector of St. Nathanael's Church.

To our Convocation we welcome three new clergy—the Rev. Elaf Johnson, as rector of St. Simeon's, the Rev. A. N. Redding, of Texas, as rector of Grace and the Incarnation, and the Rev. George Kahlbaugh at St. Bartholomew's.

We are sorry to lose the services of two men—the Rev. William Eckman, who has gone from old Christ Church to Cape May, and the Rev. Arthur Appleton, who has retired after nearly 30 years as rector of Christ Church, 6th & Venango Streets.

The Rev. George Kahlbaugh assumed charge of St. Bartholomew's on Lehigh Avenue, after the Diocese had done a splendid job making extensive improvements in the rectory.

St. Ambrose church had been well protected with roofing last year, but this winter their fifty year old furnace broke down completely. Between the Diocese and the people of the church, a new heating system is now being installed.

It is interesting to note that the money borrowed from the Diocese by St. George's, Richmond, in order to repair their furnace and lay a new parish house floor, has been paid off in full.

One of the success stories of the Diocese is the splendid work accomplished by the Rev. Edward Bak and his people in rebuilding the Polish Church of the Redeemer. They rose above doubt, discouragement and despair and proved what can be done by their own efforts and by their own hands, supplemented by some Diocesan aid. Today the whole Diocese may be proud of their well built and well equipped modern church plant.

The Rev. Silvio Biagini and the members of St. Mary's Italian Mission deserve much credit and thanks for arranging to have the Polish congregation hold their services and meetings during these past couple of years in St. Mary's Church.

The old church of St. John Chrysostom, 28th & Susquehanna Avenue has been sold.

A new chapter is being written in the history of the Church of the Advocate, 18th & Diamond Streets. An arrangement has been made between the Rev. J. M. Wheatley, rector of Advocate, and Dr. Percy Stockman, in charge of St. Paul's colored mission, North Penn, whereby 29 communicants were transferred to the Advocate.

The building of St. Paul's, North Penn, is being used for the time being as a church school. The spirit of devotion that has been shown by the two clergymen in bringing these two racial groups together augurs well for a great future at the Church of the Advocate among the people now living in that neighborhood.

Two scholarships are provided for the Young People's Summer Conference at Haverford.

Again we thank the officers and members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation for their loyalty and continued splendid support in carrying on the work of our Convocation.

THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

While some Protestant Churches are moving from South Philadelphia and a number of those remaining are in charge of students, who give only as much time to church work as their studies permit, we are fortunate to have full-time supervision of our Churches in the Convocation of South Philadelphia.

During the past year, the Rev. Frank W. Bonyng, Vicar of the Chapel of Holy Communion and a former Dean of the Convocation, retired. We miss Mr. Bonyng and his wise counsel in the affairs of the Church.

The Rev. Norman C. Farnlof has resigned as Rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist.

St. Philip's Mission is progressing under the Vicar, the Rev. Dr. J. Da Costa Harewood. This mission hopes to apply for full parish status in the near future. The congregation of St. Philip's is to be congratulated on doing a splendid work.

St. Elizabeth's Mission, under the leadership of its Vicar, the Rev. Theron A. Vallee, is doing a good neighborhood work.

The Wilson Housing Project is to be opened soon and we are hopeful that this will open up new opportunities for the churches in that area. The Ministerium of South Philadelphia is planning to help with a survey of this project. There are a number of new buildings being erected in our section and we hope that our churches will benefit by this growth.

We welcome into the Convocation of South Philadelphia, the Rev. Frederick C. Price, Jr., the new Vicar of the Chapel of Holy Communion.

The May meeting of the Convocation was held at the Chapel of the Prince of Peace and the October meeting was held at Gloria Dei.

Again we thank the officers and members of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation for their loyalty and continued help in carrying on the work of the Convocation.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

There were the usual three meetings—in January, in May and in October. The January meeting was marked by a new departure. Instead of a box luncheon, we were served a 50 cent cooked meal by the Philadelphia Gas Co., proceeds of which were added to our Treasury. St. Paul's Memorial Church was our host at 15th and Porter Streets. A panel on Home Missions and Human Rights followed the luncheon. The speakers were Mrs. Disston, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Ingersoll, who convinced us that it was our responsibility to stand for the principal of Human Rights, God being the Father of all mankind.

The May meeting was held at the Prince of Peace. A resolution was spread upon the minutes on the death of Ruth Custis Kitchen, long active in the work of secretary of Education and Promotion for our Convocation. $20 each for Daily Vacation Bible Schools were given to: St. Elisabeth's, Crucifixion, St. Phillip's, St. Mary's and Gloria Dei. $25 was voted to be sent the May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital.

We were happy to have Mrs. Beath, retiring president of the Woman's Auxiliary, and Mrs. Myers, newly elected president, bring greetings to our meeting. Miss Helen McHenry gave us a splendid talk on the value of Daily Vacation Bible Schools, drawing on her experiences especially at the Church of St. John the Evangelist here in South Philadelphia.

The officers were elected as nominated:

President: Mrs. John Craig Roak
Vice-President: Mrs. Frederick Nelson
Secretary: Mrs. William Irwin
Treasurer: Miss Mary Jarvis Doyle

Mrs. Walter Haushalter was announced as having graciously accepted the appointment as Secretary of Education. Mrs. Lela D. Williams was re-appointed Devotional Chairman.

The October meeting was held at Gloria Dei (Old Swedes') Church. The Needlework Guild report, made by Miss Talbot was: $212.62 and 174 garments from 10 parishes. The parishes which had held Daily Vacation Bible Schools made most interesting reports. St. Elisabeth's returned their check of $20 and reported that they were able to raise their own expense as well as contribute $16 to the Polio Fund. The consensus of opinion was that these Vacation Bible Schools deserved our continued interest and support.

$20 Christmas treats were voted for Crucifixion, St. Philip's and St. Mary's. Dean Parker reported that he would not need the $100 which we held in escrow for the survey being made. Miss Talbot, speaking for the Department of Promotion, told of helping St. Mary's strengthen their Woman's Auxiliary program.

Mrs. Walter Haushalter, assisted by Mrs. Theodore Jenkins and Mrs. John Logan, Jr., gave us a fine panel on: "Forth on our Mission."

The same fine spirit which has characterized our meetings, was evident in all these meetings. We are a group of women devoted to the work and ready to help where we can.

THE CONVOCAION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The three Missions of the Convocation of West Philadelphia are in excellent condition at the close of the year 1953.

St. Cyprian's Mission, under the leadership of the Rev. Raymond S. Mitchell, can well be proud of her progress both spiritually and financially. The highlight of Christian growth and development was evidenced by the large number of former members who returned for the annual Home-Coming Services on St. Cyprian's Day. These people returned from all over the city and were overwhelmed by the great progress that St. Cyprian's has made.

The St. Bridget's Guild raised over two hundred dollars for repairs and the money was used to install tile flooring in the basement. The men of the Church gave freely of their labor for this enterprise. The Vestry provided new cabinets for the kitchen and the Men's Fellowship and St. Bridget's Guild furnished new dishes and glasses. A large electric clock was installed in the basement hall, a cement walk was laid in front of the Church, and two custom-made foam rubber kneelers for the altar were purchased.

Material was furnished for new choir vestments by the Woman's Auxiliary of the West Philadelphia Convocation and the members of the choir tailored their own vestments, which proved to be a delightful project. The Altar Guild made and presented to the Church a beautiful Cope which added great solemnity to the Christmas Eve Service.

The future prospects for St. Cyprian's are very good in spite of the fact that new people to draw from are limited. The work done at this Mission speaks far louder than anything we might say.

St. Titus' Mission—The Rev. Arthur F. Gibson, Vicar—is going steadily forward and shows renewed spiritual life and activity.

The Church building, lawns and shrubbery have been well cared for and the exterior of the Church is to be painted shortly. The following additions to the equipment have been received: a piano for use in the Church School from Old Christ Church; twenty-five metal folding chairs were donated through the kindness of the men and women of the West Philadelphia Convocation; new window shades were purchased for the Church School and a First Aid Kit was donated by the United Church Boys' Clubs, Inc.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation very kindly sent a gift of money to purchase Christmas Candy for the Church School.

The members of the Men's Club and the Woman's Auxiliary are very active in the life of the Church and in its financial support.

The volunteer choir, under the direction of Mr. H. Leslie Milford, does a splendid job and is most faithful.

A reception was held on the 25th Wedding Anniversary of the Vicar and his wife and this, plus the gifts and cards received, was greatly appreciated.

The members of St. Titus' are to be commended for their fine work and loyalty.

At St. Monica's Mission—The Rev. Matthew W. Davis, Vicar—the year was the best in the history of the Church and ended with all bills being paid and a small balance to carry into the new year. The one big financial achievement was the repayment of the Diocesan loan given in 1952 for necessary repairs and improvements. Another notable achievement was the paying of $704.00 for the Missionary quota, the accepted quota having been $600.00. The Chapel Committee voted to assume a ten per cent increase in its part of the Vicar's salary for 1954 and accepted a $50.00 increase in the Missionary quota for 1954.

The attendance at the services is ever increasing, the Church School is growing and it is fast becoming a neighborhood Church School which is a healthy sign; in fact, it is thought that a larger place for the growing congregation must soon be found. More and more people of the community are seeking membership in the Church and continual instructions for Confirmation are given in the Lady Chapel after the morning service each Sunday.

The Choir is growing and it is giving a splendid ministry of music at the services. The various organizations are functioning well and doing their part in the life of the Church.

During the year twenty-five cathedral kneeling chairs were placed in the Lady Chapel. These were given as memorials by members of the congregation and friends. Through the help of the Society of the P. E. Church for the Advancement of Christianity in Pennsylvania and the Department of Missions the cementing of the entire sidewalk of the Church property was accomplished.

There is indeed life in the work at St. Monica's and its members are most loyal and interested in the spread of Christ's Kingdom.

I am most appreciative of the inspiring leadership of these Vicars and of the achievements they have accomplished. The Woman's Auxiliary, under the leadership of Mrs. William Sargeant, continues to be the pride of the Convocation and I am deeply grateful for its loyalty and cooperation in our great work.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

This year has been a year of happy achievement for the work in our Convocation. Through various money-raising projects we raised enough money to provide vestment material for a choir of eighteen in St. Cyprian's Mission. The women of the church did the necessary sewing, then we also provided twenty fine sturdy chairs for St. Titus Mission.

We also had our three usual Convocation Meetings:

1. Education Day—January 15th St. Paul's Overbrook.
 Speakers: Mrs. E. Haines and Miss H. Schnurbush of the Christian Living Conference.
2. May 17—We united with the men of the Convocation at Calvary Church, 41st & Brown Streets.
 - a. Dr. Charles Long, Bishop Hart's Secretary, who spoke on the work of the Diocesan Department of Missions.
 - b. Mr. Fred Franklin, our Philadelphia Student, who spoke of the student's activities there.
3. We again joined the men on October 15th at St. Paul's Church in Overbrook, when our Diocesan President, Mrs. Charles Myers addressed us.

On November 5th we attended a Quiet Day at St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village. This was conducted by the Rector Rev. Wm. X. Smith.

We participated in the Episcopal Hospital May Fete on May 27th, helping Mrs. Bomberger with the Kitchen Wares Booth.

We also sponsored a Book-Review on March 17th at Lit's Suburban Store—to raise money for the Diocesan "Special" a "Frigid-aire" for the Divinity School.

Coin Cards were again distributed for use during the summer months, netting $63.00. On October 21st at St. James, Kingessing we enjoyed a splendid demonstration of Floral Arrangement, which brought in $58.60.

We were able to send a check for $85. to pay for the chairs for St. Titus Mission and $90. for the materials for vestments at St. Cyprian's.

I wish to thank the Dean, and the members of our Executive Committee and all Convocation members for their splendid co-operation. May all you grow in strength and loyalty and co-operate with your new officers which will be elected in May.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1953

Annual reports usually are very matter of fact and at their best dry reading, however, the renewed interest shown in the Episcopal Church in the educational aspect of the Church's work during the last eight years encourages me to set out once again on the tedious job of writing a report without any apologies.

Our diocese through its Department of Christian Education has kept pace with the national developments in education and our parishes have responded wonderfully. We are still a far way off from having an educational program worthy of our great Episcopal Church, yet we who are working in the field of Christian Education feel that we have made great progress, especially during the last six years.

Several years ago the program of the Church was introduced to our diocese in the clergy meeting held at Buck Hill Falls. This was brought down to the parish level through the Christian Living Conferences held in the early part of 1953 where we were able to reach over five thousand people through eight area conferences. Amazing is the fact that the majority of those attending were present all four nights of their area conference. These conferences were conducted by a team of three from the Leadership Training Division of the National Department of Christian Education.

We have now started to carry the program into our parishes through a series of Intensive Weekends. Judging from the wonderful results of responses of the first ones held we have every reason to believe that these conferences have a great deal of promise and possibilities. We hope that within the near future all our parishes will have been given the opportunity to participate at one of these weekends.

The availability of our Conference Center in the coming year will greatly lighten the work of the department in planning these weekends.

During the past year some changes have taken place in the office personnel of the department. Mrs. David Hilsee, who has been a tremendous assistance to us, particularly during the time of Miss Newman's illness, resigned during the summer months, as did Mrs. Richter, who had been with us for about two years. We were indeed very fortunate, however, to be able to secure the services of Mrs. Maurice Rowley to help with the office work and Mrs. Peter Dexheimer as an assistant to the executive secretary. Mrs. Dexheimer comes to us well recommended and has many years of experience in the field of Christian Education as a background. We feel that we have a good staff and working under the leadership of our capable executive secretary, Miss Beryl Newman, we hope to be able to continue to give our diocese the educational leadership they are entitled to.

Miss Newman continues to serve the parishes and missions in our diocese in an advisory capacity and directs the educational program on the diocesan level. Her duties also include serving on committees on provincial and national levels and with the Philadelphia Council of Churches.

The reports of the various committees are as follows:

The Audio-Visual Committee

The Rev. Robert Q. Kennaugh, Chairman

This phase of the department's work has grown tremendously over a comparatively short period of time. Copies of all the National Council new 16mm films are in the library and in constant use. Many parishes through the Audio-Visual Cooperative have regularly planned audio-visual programs. A new cabinet was purchased to take care of the increasingly large number of slides and filmstrips now in the library and more and more time is devoted to this work by the office staff.

The Church School Committee

Miss Helen W. McHenry, Chairman

The program of the 83rd Annual Church School Institute, October 5, 1953, was based on the theme For Every Child Faith in God. The new 16 mm film by that name was used to provide stimulation and thought-provoking discussion under the leadership of the Rev. Frederic R. Murray, rector, St. Paul's, Elkins Park and department member. Due to unexpected difficulties the Christian Association could not serve the supper, but Houston Hall in the emergency responded to an appeal and we had the supper there. It was such a success that we all wished we could continue with such an arrangement.

The Church School Committee again cooperated in the preparation of the Lenten Study Guide.

The Vacation Church School Committee

Miss Eleanor A. Deane, Chairman

This committee stressed the need for a summer geared program in the parish and sent our suggestions for many varied types. Of course the Vacation Church School was emphasized and a one-night Institute held for leaders. The Rev. Edward G. Harris, Chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania, spoke on the theme—Jesus, Master and Teacher, after which discussion groups considered its application for children. For more specific training we supported the two Vacation Church School Institutes held under the auspices of the Philadelphia Council of Churches. We also provided leadership for the Institute held in Bucks Co.

The Church School-By-Mail Committee

The Rev. John C. Knewstubb, Chairman

There were 117 children found in our canvass of outlying districts in Chester and Delaware Counties, making a total of 308 on roll during 1953. Forty-eight children became affiliated with the nearest Sunday School; others moved or outgrew the work, leaving a total of 226 at the end of the year. Of these, 188 are in Chester Convocation, 18 in Germantown Convocation, 18 in the Home for Incurables, West Philadelphia, and 2 from the Diocese of Southwestern Virginia. Eighty-five per cent of the families responded with returned question sheets, 45% regularly and 40% irregularly.

A total of 254 visits were made by the worker, 57 to the families on roll, and 197 calls made in canvassing. Eight drivers gave their services to take the worker visiting; 4 clergy and 4 lay people. A total of 1,075 miles were covered driving in the field. Two hundred and four scholarships were received from parishes and missions for the support of the work. The Church School-By-Mail children presented a Lenten offering of $21.15; and 226 Christmas gifts were mailed to the children. St. John's, Concord, provided a worker to mail and correct the lessons in their district.

The Weekday Religious Education Committee

This committee continued inactive during the past year. The department considered this work at one of its meetings and the Executive Secretary continued to cooperate with the Philadelphia Council of Churches' committee in the study of this work.

The Youth Commission

The Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, Chairman

Your Youth Commission has continued its efforts to promote the program of the United Movement of the Church's Youth throughout the past year. It has held frequent meetings including an afternoon, dinner and evening meeting last spring at which adequate time could be given to an appraisal of our work and program.

The main instruments that the commission has used for forwarding its work has been the Diocesan Youth Summer Conference and the Youth Council. The Summer Conference was held at Haverford College again with 114 young people and a staff of 22 adult leaders, whose physical well-being was more than well taken care of by the friendly and most cooperative staff of the college to whom we are most deeply in debt for all their kindnesses. The Rev. Ernest A. deBordenave, using the theme "Becoming a Person," each morning talked to the young people and presented the "thought" which became the foundation for the day's study and work. These talks will never be forgotten by those who heard them.

The Youth Council had one of its most active and fruitful years. In addition to those activities which have become annual events, the district meetings in January, the Youth Convention in May, and the booth at the May Fete of the Episcopal Hospital, and the sponsoring of the National Youth Corporate Communion in October, the Youth Mission Study and Offering (this past year for Mexico), the Festival of Lights services in Epiphanytide, and Youth Sunday in April, it went off for a two-day "Retreat Conference" at St. Martin's House, in Bernardsville, N. J., which was a most successful venture and all 14 who made the trip were firm in their belief that it should be made an annual event, though wishing it could have been at our own conference center.

The main concern of the council this past fall has been the implementing of a suggestion brought to the planning session of the council in September by members of the Young People's Fellowship, which pointed out that one of the main frustrations of youth work in the diocese were the duplications of conventions, services of worship and publicity sponsored by the various organizations and orders at work in the diocese. As a result a committee was formed made up of representatives of the Youth Council and all organizations of the diocese. As a result of their deliberations a combined service for all organizations, orders, working with the youth of the diocese, and for all youth not so included will be held in Holy Trinity Church on Quinquagesima Sunday, 1954, and in the spring a convention will be held at which the various organizations, orders, and unaffiliated youth will hold separate business sessions in addition to a program for all. So far nothing has been done about a combined youth publication, but that is still on the agenda of the council.

I believe that in the above steps real progress has been made so that the year 1953 was a turning point in the history of youth work in the diocese.

The Adult Committee

The Rev. H. Lawrence Whittemore, Jr., Chairman

During the year 1953 the Committee on Adult Education wrote and published a pamphlet entitled, "How Are You Doing?" It was the intent of this pamphlet to stimulate groups in parishes to develop their own educational programs by aiming, first, at the nature of the task of the Church and, second, at the quality of the life existing in a given parish.

At the request of Bishop Hart, the committee presented to the clergy of the diocese at the Annual June Conference a report on the development of the new curriculum of the National Department, and steps to be taken in the local parish in preparation for the use of that material.

The Adult Committee has been charged with the responsibility of initiating a series of Intensive Weekend Conferences in the diocese. The first conference was held at Schwenksville in September under the leadership of the Rev. Charles Leech, in the Diocese of Delaware.

Late in 1953 the committee implemented a further series of conferences to start in the next calendar year. The responsibility for this work is being handled jointly with the School of Christian Education Committee.

The Guild of The Christ Child

Mrs. Joseph Tatnall, Chairman

There has been a steady continuing growth in the use of this educational material for parents of the pre-school child. Three years ago we began to use the Diocese of Maryland, Guild of the Christ Child material, and in this short time approximately three thousand sets have gone into the homes of our families.

The Committee on Special Offerings

The Rev. Herbert W. Jones, Chairman

The Lenten offering for 1953 amounting to $79,105.37 from 181 parishes and missions was presented on Whitsunday, May 24th, at the Episcopal Academy. The choir numbered almost 1500 girls and boys from 75 parishes and missions. It was estimated that there were over 4000 in attendance. We had beautiful weather and it is an inspiring sight to see the hundreds of colorfully vested girls and boys in the three aisle procession. Father Harrison of the Holy Cross in his talk brought us really close to the people of Africa where he had served for so many years. We thank everyone who worked so hard to make this service so inspiring.

The Advent offering for this year was assigned to help St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton, in its building program. The offering amounted to $1603.07 from forty-one of our church schools.

The Lenten Study Guide was again prepared by the Church School Committee and the Special Offerings Committee.

The Birthday Thank offering for 1952-53 amounted to $177.20 and was for the work of our church in the Grand Coulee Dam project area. Ten parishes and missions participated in this offering.

The Church Schools, under the Diocesan Christmas Committee, sent over 2100 gifts and $35 to twenty-four missions and institutions. These totals cannot be considered exact since a great many last minute calls came in the final week and it was impossible to count them all. Thirty-one schools participated. Thirty-four church schools sent $553.17 to the Missionary District of Haiti for Christmas gifts.

The School of Christian Education Committee

The Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Chairman

After many meetings and considerable work in the preparation of a program for several area schools to be held in the year 1953-54, information concerning Intensive Weekends was received and the committee immediately held up further planning. When the department put its endorsement on this type of education this committee cancelled plans for holding area schools and voted to use their funds to support this work.

The Reference Committee

Mrs. George C. Bland, Chairman

At the request of the department this committee considered the nature of department meetings and made some recommendations. These included:

1. that the meetings begin at 10:00 a.m. and run through lunch, and be held outside the Church House.
2. that the minutes be mimeographed and sent out with the agenda of the next meeting.
3. that one aspect of the department's work be the order of the day at each meeting.

In closing may I again express my deep and sincere gratitude to the many members of the department who have given so freely of their time for the furthering of this all important task of the Christian Church—the education of its members.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR., Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Of primary significance to the Department during 1953 was its formal organization into four divisions recommended by the Department of Christian Social Relations of the National Council as follows:

1. Social Education and Community Action (now known as Christian Citizenship)
2. Health and Welfare Services
3. Urban and Industrial Church
4. World Relief and Church Cooperation

With an active chairman of each Division (that of #4 World Relief and Church Cooperation yet to be appointed) and a dedicated membership in each the program of the Department has been developed efficiently and implemented effectively.

Specific activities included the organization and holding of an Institute on "Episcopalians at Work in the World" which was well attended by an interested audience. Legislation concerning child care, loyalty oaths, and care of the aged was sponsored in the State Legislature. Support was given the Woman's Auxiliary in the collection of food and clothing for the unfortunate war-devastated areas of the world.

The Executive Secretary was active at the Bishop's request in the establishment of "Druim Moir" as a home for retired clergy and church workers.

As important to the work of the Department as any single activity was securing a change in the canon. This permit of a more specific definition of the work of the Department, at the same time giving added responsibility to it.

In summary, while the work of the Department continued during 1953, it was a year of reorganization and planning for 1954 and beyond to permit us to fulfill the function of what one of our members has aptly described as "the conscience of the Church."

Respectfully submitted,

SYDNEY L. W. LEA,
Chairman

APPENDIX I

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR THE EPISCOPATE

Our Report of last year dealt at some length with the purposes and methods of the Committee and suggested answers to two current objections. It seems unnecessary to repeat so soon what was then said.

Contributions to the Fund from the date of compiling the last Report (March 16, 1953) to the date of compiling this one (March 15, 1954) have been:

Mrs. Arthur Dearborn Smith.....	$ 25.00
George R. Miller, Jr. (In memory of his father).....	25.00
All Souls' Church for the Deaf.....	27.51
Woman's Auxiliary of St. Christopher's.....	10.00
Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip-in-the-fields, Oreland.....	5.00
Ten per cent of Confirmation Offerings.....	1,120.00
	$1,212.51

The principal of the Fund stood at $311,359.93 on December 31, 1953, and at $311,720.97 on March 15, 1954.

In our last Report we mentioned bequests under the Wills of Samuel F. Houston and Frank H. Moss. Mr. Houston's estate has not yet been distributed. The bequest of $25,000 by Mr. Moss, we are assured, will have been paid over to The Church Foundation, for the Fund, by the end of March. Under date of February 3rd, The Church Foundation was notified of a bequest of $2,500.00 to the Fund under the Will of Clare L. McConnell, but payment awaits distribution of the estate.

The History of the Fund, with comparisons with similar Funds in other dioceses, was revised and a third edition published last fall. A recital by Charles Laughton, April 17, 1953, for the benefit of the Fund, was well attended.

We are grateful to the following parishes which will use next October, in connection with their Every Member Canvasses, a special gift envelope designed by Mr. John Falkner Arndt of the Committee:

Holy Apostles and The Mediator
Holy Comforter, Aronimink
St. Clement, Philadelphia
St. Luke and The Epiphany
St. Paul, Chestnut Hill
St. Paul, West Whiteland

The death of Mr. Marshall S. Morgan on December 5, 1953, deprived the Committee of a valued member. Mr. Morgan's judgment and ideas were important contributions to the work of the Committee.

Mr. Brown has been most anxious to insure the continuance of the active work of this Committee and, therefore, after this Convention will become Honorary Chairman, his place as Chairman being taken by Mr. D. Alexander Wieland. Mr. Ervin's place as Vice-Chairman will be taken by Mr. Frederic C. Wheeler. The expenses of the Committee, hitherto provided by Mr. Brown, will be met by the Diocese.

For the Committee,

SPENCER ERVIN
Vice-Chairman and Treasurer

A property on Gulph Creek Road, Radnor, consisting of a main house, stone garage, swimming pool and two cottages, together with approximately 55 acres of land, has been transferred to the Church Foundation as a gift from Mrs. Stanley Griswold Flagg and Mr. Flagg, Deceased. Plans are under way to occupy this property as a Diocesan Conference Center.

The former Rectory of All Saints, Rhawnhurst, 1908 Stanwood Street, Philadelphia, Pa. was sold and the proceeds thereof applied toward the building of a new Rectory on the Church property. With the building of this Rectory the All Saints, Rhawnhurst Building Fund cash assets were liquidated and converted into real estate assets.

assets of $107,476.52

St. Peter, Broomall Building Fund—construction of new Church Building—$51,000.

amounting to $14,875.

INSURANCE

Mission Properties

A total of $2,935,187.00 fire insurance with extended coverage is now in force on 35 Mission properties in the Diocese.

This insurance is placed with the Church Fire Insurance Corporation and periodic reviews are made by that Corporation of sound insurable values, giving effect to changes in building costs and improvements. The Church Foundation has been authorized by the Executive Council of the Diocese to keep the insurance up to 80% of sound insurable value, and we are indicating the cases in which the insurance has been increased since our last report.

The Mission Properties are insured against Public Liability $10,000/$20,000 limits. In addition a new liability policy was put into force known specifically as Owner's Protective Liability Insurance, with limits of $100,000 for each person and $300,000 for each accident, bodily injury. This policy was put into effect to protect the Diocese and The Church Foundation during the course of building projects.

Wherever up-to-date appraisals are made on Parish properties whose titles are in the name of The Church Foundation, the Parish Authorities are advised of the shortages that exist. During the year, two Parishes that were considerably under-insured brought their insurance up to a satisfactory coverage. These Parishes, namely St. Simeon's, 9th and Lehigh Avenue, and St.
Nathanael's, Allegheny Avenue and E Street, Philadelphia, have brought their insurance in line, necessitating both effort and sacrifice on their part.

The following is a list of the Mission properties showing the fire insurance with extended coverage in force on buildings and contents on each property as of March 1, 1954.

FUNDS

The Church Foundation is managing a total of 163 funds. Of these, 128 funds hold units in the Consolidated Fund, 3 funds hold units in the Consolidated Legal Fund, 8 funds are separately invested, making 139 invested funds. The remaining 24 funds consist of building funds, savings funds, property rentals, and 2 funds in which income only is received.

INVESTMENT

Management

The securities in our two Consolidated Funds are under the constant supervision of our Investment Committee. All purchases and sales are authorized by this Committee.

The Provident Trust Company acts as Fiscal Agent for the safe-keeping of all securities held by The Church Foundation.

Investment Policy

We have endeavored to adhere to an investment policy that appears prudent in the light of our analysis of the general business situation and the position of the securities markets. Our policy is to obtain the best possible income for our participating funds consistent with safety of principal, and keeping cash on hand fully invested. We have constantly in mind maintaining a proper balance in our Consolidated Fund between bonds, preferred and common stocks, and the percentage in each group is shown in the summary of securities later in the report. Particular attention has been paid to the maturity of bond obligations within a ten year period, which places the Consolidated Fund in a good position to take advantage of market situations as they arise.

Our policy is to accept United States Series G 2½% Savings Bonds at their maturity value rather than their redemption value. This is an encouragement to Churches who have invested in these securities, to place their funds with The Church Foundation without incurring any loss of principal. The Consolidated Fund owns a total of $286,600.00 U. S. Saving G 2½% Bonds, of which $105,900 mature during the calendar year 1954.

A small percentage of the income earned by the units of the Consolidated Fund has been placed into an Amortization Reserve Fund. The Investment Committee believes this to be a sound policy to offset any principal loss due to bonds purchased at a premium policy above maturity value or due to U. S. Series G Bonds which might be redeemed before maturity. Since 1943 $18,261.37 of income has been placed in the Amortization Reserve Fund. Of this amount $14,864 has been invested in U. S. Series F and Series J Cumulative Savings Bonds having a maturity value of $20,200. These have been added to the principal of the Consolidated Fund.

CONSOLIDATED FUND

In the 128 funds participating in the Consolidated Fund, there were a total of 263,878 units outstanding as of March 5, 1954. The cost of these units was $2,881,480.17, or an average of $10.92 per unit.

During the year 1953 earnings amounted to 54.38 cents per unit after amortization charge. These earnings represent a return of 4.98%, or practically 5% on the average cost of units. It would represent a return of 4.1% on the unit value of $13.36 as of March 5, 1954.

The participating funds are grouped below in accordance with size and amounts.

Funds	Size	Number Units	Cost
43	Up to $5,000	8,091	$ 89,730.10
32	$ 5,000—$ 10,000	21,300	236,247.49
29	$10,000—$ 25,000	42,035	465,476.21

7	Over $100,000	122,929	1,320,825.32
128		263,878	$2,881,480.17

During the last four quarterly appraisals of the Consolidated Fund, purchase of units have been made at the following prices per unit, based on market values.

June 5, 1953	$12.22
September 5, 1953	 12.26
December 5, 1953	 12.79
March 5, 1954	 13.36

Purchases of units are made at the quarterly appraisal periods. Cash for investment in any of the participating funds must be in the hands of The Church Foundation on or before the 10th day of March, June, September and December.

The following table shows the growth and progress of the Consolidated Fund since its inception:

* The net income per unit is after amortization charges, but before administration charges.

The following is a summary of values as of March 5, 1954:

Original price paid for 263,878 units outstanding $2,881,480.17
Add accumulated undistributed profit on securities sold ... 63,616.80

Making total book value of securities $2,945,096.97
Present Market Value of Securities and Cash $3,527,998.50

CONSOLIDATED LEGAL FUND

The Consolidated Legal Fund was established as of March 5, 1953. This is primarily an investment for funds which are restricted to legal investments for trust funds. However, the Consolidated Legal Fund could be used advantageously by any fund whose primary purpose was conservative investment and one in which the values of its securities would only fluctuate slightly.

The three participating funds purchased 1,746 units at $10. each for a total cost of $17,460. There have been no additional funds added. As of March 5, 1954 the unit value was $10.58 and the total market value of the Fund was $18,471.47.

During the twelve month period from March 5, 1953 to March 5, 1954 the earnings have been 37.44 cents per unit which represents a return of 3.74% on the original investment. On the basis of the present unit value the income return would be 3.55%.

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

Throughout the past year growth and interest in the Cathedral has continued. A thriving group of men and a Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary do much in support of the life of a growing congregation. A Church School of sixty children more or less continues to increase.

In June of last year the newly renovated Cathedral House (8600 Ridge Avenue) was opened despite a heavy downpour of rain. Members of the Cathedral congregation not only aided physically to make the House possible but also were hosts at tea to the Bishop and Chapter and a goodly number of others who attended the services at the Cathedral earlier in the afternoon. The House has served many needs of the congregation for social life, fellowship, and Church School facilities. It also is available for certain community uses. During the year, too, a new driveway was constructed replacing one which long before had outlived its usefulness.

Under the Will of Anne Tucker Earp, Deceased, the Cathedral Foundation received a bequest amounting to twenty-five thousand, five hundred and seventy-seven dollars and seventy-six cents ($25,577.76). The bequest is "to be added to the building fund of said Cathedral, as a memorial in memory of Old St. Philip's Church, formerly at Eighth and Vine Streets, Philadelphia."

During the year the Chapter was forced with deep regret to accept three resignations. After many years of devoted and invaluable service Mr. Reed A. Morgan felt it necessary to relinquish his place on the Chapter Finance Committee. Due to his inability to attend Chapter Meetings regularly Morris Duane, Esquire asked to be relieved of his responsibilities. Louis B. Runk, Esquire after long and loyal service as a member of the Chapter and also as Treasurer resigned from the latter because of failing sight and health. To succeed Mr. Runk Mr. Lewis M. Evans was elected Treasurer and now serves as Vice-President and Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM N. LANIGAN,
Registrar-Secretary

APPENDIX M

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECTORS' SALARIES AND PENSIONS

The Members of this Commission have met from time to time in order to perform the duties assigned to them by Convention. It has fulfilled its function in making grants to Parishes unable to complete the Diocesan minimum salaries of rectors and to maintain the payment of Pension premiums of all the Clergy of the Diocese.

Since 1887, this work has gone on in the interest of rectors, every avenue of possible income has been explored in their respective Parishes and aid up to $900. has been granted. This year there are but four aided Parishes, amply cared for from the Sustentation Fund.

A greater responsibility arises from the fact that some Vestries do not regularly pay their rector's pension premiums. Unfortunate arrearages, the loss of special privileges and pension amounts, as well as the possible effect when less than six month's premiums have been paid in one year, of the loss of the thousand dollars immediately granted a widow, not only in the given case but as it applies to others. We strongly urge every Vestry to fulfill as its first financial responsibility the regular payment of rector's salaries and pension premiums. If this cannot be done, recourse may be had in following out canonical relief in applying to this Commission for a grant up to $900. or in a more serious situation for a Diocesan Mission status, hoping for a more favorable income in the future.

Again your Commission believes that the work can be cared for by the amount of $6,000, the same figure for several years past and the lowest ever sought, and therefore ask the Convention to permit our assessment on all Parishes and Missions for the year 1955 for that sum, presenting the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the work of the Commission for the year 1955 the sum of $6,000.00.

Since it is impossible in many instances to secure a rented Rectory for sum now provided in Canon XXII, therefore your Commission offers the following change in the wording of paragraph C: the wording on the third line to be changed to "then a sum not to exceed $900. shall be added to the salary," all else remaining as at present.

In behalf of the Commission,

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. NIBLO
Chairman.

APPENDIX N

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS—1954

After the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania in 1953 Bishop Hart appointed a Committee to consider the possibility of making certain changes in the Diocesan Convention's Standing Rules of Order, and in the Diocesan Canons, concerning nominations and elections to elective offices within the Diocese. The Rev. Ralph E. Coonrad, Chancellor Robert T. McCracken, and Mr. Harry C. Parker were appointed to the Committee—herein after referred to as the Chancellor's Committee—which was convened by Mr. McCracken on June 11, 1953, and subsequently met on call. This Committee discussed thoroughly certain possible changes in the rules and laws regulating nominations and elections in the Standing Rules of Order, and in certain Diocesan Canons. After several drafts of proposed amendments and new legislation, the Chancellor's Committee agreed upon the changes set forth in the following Standing Rules of Order, and in specific Canons. The Chancellor's Committee considered changes in the Standing Rules of Order of this Convention, as adopted in 1952, and in the Diocesan Canons as of 1951, to effect (1) nominations to elective office, (2) the Standing Committee, and (3) the Executive Council.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons has received from the Chancellor's Committee proposed amendments to the Standing Rule of Order V, entitled "Nominations and Elections to offices by vote of Convention," paragraphs 2 and 3, together with proposed amendments to Canons IV and VI. The Committee on Canons has considered these suggested amendments to the Rules of Order, Canon IV, and the complete redrafting of Canon VI, 1, 2, and finds them proper and in order.

Concerning the List of Nominations

The Diocesan Convention of 1952 adopted, among other provisions, Standing Rule of Order V, 2. This rule is entitled, "Nominations and Elections to offices filled by vote of the Convention." It is moved to rescind paragraph 2 of Rule V, which now reads as follows:

2. The Committee on Elections shall place on the list of nominations the offices to be filled at the coming Convention and the names of the persons now serving in the above office including the appointed members of the Executive Council.

Hereinafter, suggested amendments will be printed in italics. It is moved to enact the following legislation in substitution of Rule V, 2 of the Standing Rules of Order:

2. The Committee on Elections shall prepare and mail to each clerical and lay deputy a list of offices to be filled at the coming Convention.

Further, it is moved to rescind paragraph 3 of the same Rule V, which now reads as follows:

3. Any ten persons, clerical or lay, entitled to vote in the last Convention, may nominate any person or persons for election to office by writing duly signed and directed to the chairman of the Committee on Elections to arrive in his care not later than forty days prior to the date of the Convention.

Much of paragraph 3 of Rule V has been left untouched, but enough of the original has been amended, together with another sentence appended, to make it simpler to rescind the original Rule V, 3, and substitute in its place the following revised and appended legislation:

3. Any ten persons, clerical or lay, entitled to vote in the last Convention or eligible to vote in the coming Convention, may nominate any person or persons for election to office by using one or a multiple of sheets. Such nomination shall be in writing duly signed and directed to the chairman of the Committee on Elections to arrive in his care not later than forty days prior to the date of the Convention. No incumbent who served a full term shall succeed himself until one year shall have elapsed after the expiration of his term.

Amendments to Canons

The Canons herein concerned are IV, I, 1 and 2 and VI, I, 2.

The Chancellor's Committee suggested that the amendment it drafted for Canon IV, I be appended to paragraph 1. The Committee on Canons considered this amendment but believes that it properly belongs to paragraph 2 rather than paragraph 1. The Committee on Canons then considered the whole of paragraph 2 and found that for the last nine years, or since 1945 as stated in the Canon, the Standing Committee has actually been functioning under the procedures laid down here, and that, therefore, lines 1 to 11 of IV, I, 2 are no longer essential. The Committee on Canons recommends to this Convention that all of paragraph 2, Sec. I of Canon IV be rescinded except the last sentence, and that the word "succeeding" in that sentence be deleted. It is then proposed to append the new legislation written by the Chancellor's Committee to amended paragraph 2, Sec. I of Canon IV, to read as follows:

2. At each Annual Convention there shall be elected one Clergyman and one Layman to take the places of those whose terms shall then expire, to serve for five years. A member of this Committee shall not be eligible to succeed himself until one year shall have elapsed after the expiration of his term.

The Committee on Canons moves the adoption of this amended paragraph 2, Sec. I of Canon IV, and its appended legislation.

Concerning Canon VI (of the Executive Council), I, 2. It is proposed to rescind paragraph 2, which now reads as follows:

2. At each Annual Convention there shall be elected six Clergymen and six Laymen to serve as members of the Executive Council for one year.

It is further proposed to substitute in the place of the above paragraph 2 the following new legislation:

2 At the Annual Convention of 1955 there shall be elected for membership in the Executive Council six Clergymen and six Laymen, of whom two in each Order shall be deemed elected to serve for one year, two in each Order to serve for two years, and two in each Order to serve for three years. At the first meeting after the Convention of 1955 the elected members of the Executive Council shall determine, by lot, the respective terms which they shall be considered to have been elected to serve. At each succeeding Annual Convention there shall be elected two Clergymen and two Laymen to take the places of those whose terms shall then expire, to serve for three years.

The Committee on Canons moves the adoption of this new legislation as a substitute for the existing paragraph 2, Sec. I of Canon VI.

Proposal to amend Canon VII, Sec. I

Canon VII, I of the Diocesan Canons of 1951 reads as follows: beginning with the second line from the bottom on page 43 and continuing on page 44:

. . . The Trustees, or the corporate Trustee, as the case may be, shall pay over the net income to the Treasurer of the Diocese, to be used for the purposes of the Episcopal Fund hereinafter described, and shall make an annual report to the Convention.

It has been proposed, by Mr. Spencer Ervin, to amend Canon VII, I to read as follows::

. . . The Trustees, or the corporate Trustee, as the case may be, shall pay over the net income to the Treasurer of the Diocese, to be used for the purposes of the assessment for support of the Episcopate hereinafter described, and shall make an annual report to the Convention.

The amendment (in italics) merely brings the wording of the last sentence of Canon VII, I into conformity with Sec. III of the same Canon, which provides that income from endowment funds for support of the Episcopate "be added to proceeds from the above assessments. . . ."

The Committee on Canons therefore moves to rescind the words "Episcopal Fund" in line 18 (at page 44 of "The Constitution and Canons, etc." of this Diocese, 1951) and to substitute for them the words, "assessment for support of the Episcopate."

Proposition to Amend Article IV., Sec. 1 of the Diocesan Constitution

The Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons has received the following copy of a "Proposition" which is "to be presented to the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania called for May 3 and 4, 1954."

The following proposition for amendment of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania having been offered, considered and approved by the Convention thereof called and held on Monday May 4, 1953, and Tuesday, May 5, 1953, is hereby offered for the second consideration, that it may become binding according to the provisions of Article X of said Constitution:

That the words 'Lay Persons' be substituted for the word 'Laymen' in sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of this Diocese.

Explanatory Statement

The purpose of this amendment is to assure recognition that women are entitled to a voice and vote in the affairs of the Church in this Diocese.

When the proposition to amend the Canon Law of this Diocese to give women voice and vote in this Convention came before this Committee in 1952, it was badly drafted. The proposition was merely to amend Canon II, Secs. V and VI of the Diocesan Canons by deleting the word "male." The report of this Committee points out, on pages 304 to 310 of the Journal of 1952, that the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention (in Art. I, Sec. 4, and Canon 1, Sec. 2 (c) of 1949) state that Deputies to the General Convention shall be "male" communicants, and that this interpretation has been accepted in White's Annotated Constitution and Canons. The report further noted that this interpretation has been consistent in the General Convention whenever the matter about women Deputies has arisen. The same report states that this is the interpretation to be followed when the matter of women Deputies arises in this Diocese. The report of 1952 recommended that the procedure to legalize the election and seating of women Deputies would be to offer a motion to this Convention to change, regardless of the precedents cited to the contrary, the word "Laymen" in Article IV, Sec. I of the Diocesan Constitution to read "Lay Deputies" or "Lay Persons." Having done this it would then be possible to change Canon II, Secs. V. and VI. by deleting the noun "male" and the pronoun "he" to bring them into conformity with the provision in the Constitution.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons received no request to consider amendment of either the Constitution or Canons within the required thirty days prior to the Convention of 1953, although it was claimed by the authors of a proposition that did appear before the Convention that such a document was sent to the Diocesan offices. Thus, no mention of this proposal appears in this Committee's report on pages 275 and 276 of the Journal of 1953. However, on page 35 of this same Journal the minutes of the Convention note that this proposed amendment to the Constitution only was offered by the Rev. G. W. Wickersham. Because the original proposition of the Rev. Mr. Wickersham could not be found, a technical question arose regarding the propriety of submitting it to the Convention of 1953. Following a conference with the Chancellor of the Diocese it was suggested that the proposed amendment be referred to a Special Committee to be appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese "to be reported later to the Convention." The Special Committee so appointed consisted of three clerical signers of the proposed amendment: The Rev. Messrs Knewstub, Platts, and Wickersham.

Near the close of the same Convention the Special Committee sought and received recognition and made its report (Journal, p. 38), as follows:

That the words 'Lay Persons' be substituted for the word 'Laymen' in sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of this Diocese.

The minutes of the Journal then read as follows:

On motion the above resolution to amend the Constitution was adopted by the concurrent vote of both orders, Clerical vote: Ayes 66, Noes, 60; Parish vote: Ayes 66, Noes 44.

To be presented in May, 1954, for ratification.

Question has been raised pertaining to the legality of the above procedure. Specifically: Were the provisions of Canon IV, Sec. II, paragraph 2 and Canon XXII, Sec. 2 followed precisely? The authors of the written proposition claimed that they had submitted to Diocesan authorities a proposition to amend Art. IV of the Constitution, that it had been misplaced, and that it did not reach the Committee on Canons. The Chairman of the Committee on Canons, while discussing this difficult situation with the Chancellor of the Diocese, was asked if this proposition had been considered by the Committee on Canons. The report of this Committee regarding the change of words in Article IV, Sec. 1 (which the Committee considered necessary to properly amend the Constitution), and the proposition submitted by the Rev. G. W. Wickersham et al, show agreement as to the wording of the proposed amendment.

The question is: Does the Committee on Canons approve—or did it approve—the wording, or find any fault with the proper form, of the Wickersham amendment? The answer is: The Committee on Canons would be forced to say that the Wickersham amendment meets with its approval. This is purely a technical question of time because the Committee did not receive within the required thirty days a proposition to amend the Constitution—a proposition which follows exactly what the Committee had suggested in its report of 1952. Further, the direction to the Special Committee, as noted in the minutes of the Convention of 1953, states that it was to report on its action "later to the Convention." The direction to the Special Committee is not clear—was it to report to the Convention of 1953 or of 1954? The direction could mean either, but was taken to mean 1953. When the Chancellor was informed by the Chairman of this Committee that the resolution to amend Article IV, Sec. 1 of the Constitution meets with the approval of this Committee, in view of its report to the Convention of 1952, he saw no reason why the resolution could not be placed before the Convention. The question is purely technical, but it would appear that all the requirements and principles of Canon Law have been fulfilled under rather extraordinary circumstances, and not by-passed.

A question has arisen in some quarters relating to the admission of women to synods of the Church. It is said that this would appear to be in violation of an ecclesiastical principle in law and tradition of the Universal Church of which this Church is part. A synod was anciently considered, and continues so now in England and Scotland with other branches of the Anglican Communion, as the Bishop in council, that is, the bishop or bishops with their "inferior" clergy only. In matters of doctrine and legislation the laity, when consulted at all, had power merely to confirm or to question the acts of the synod—the laity had no power to initiate or pass legislation affecting either doctrine or church order. Their voice in such matters was rather moral than legislative. But in the American Church, as Judge Hoffman notes in his Law of the Church (chapter 1, and on page 184), clergy and laity were united in general and diocesan synods. The great Catholic canonist of the 18th century, van Espen, has written on the right of a national Church to write laws for itself which, however they may vary from, do not contravene the general Canon Law when those laws relate to fundamental doctrine or law. An example of this is the privilege of Anglican clergymen to marry because, no matter what one thinks of that right, it is not prohibited in Divine or Fundamental Law. It would appear, therefore, that the American Episcopal Church had a right to write law at variance with the accepted ecclesiastical common law to admit the laity to its councils in union with the clergy—the "inferior" clergy. At any rate the new American Church did make this provision, i.e. the union of clergy and laity in synods, a fundamental principle of its own law. In this provision the American Church certainly differs from the Church of England—the Church Assembly where laity, both men and women sit with "inferior" clergy, is not a legislative body; only the Convocations are legislative bodies—and other branches of the Anglican Communion, to say nothing of the rest of Catholic Christendom. But by established principle and by law laymen have been admitted to the synods of this Church. The question, therefore, appears to be technical rather than fundamental—fundamental in the sense of effecting law or precedent constituting Catholic synods of the Universal Church down the ages. It is sheer nonsense to say that this provision of the Church is ultra vires because it flies in the face of tradition and fundamental Catholic principles of order, and legislates us out of the heritage of Catholic Christendom. But from time to time this assertion appears in various forms, and is here dealt with, let it be hoped, finally.

It is within the power of the General Synod of this Church, i.e. the General Convention, to determine the meaning of the word "Laymen" and it has been so determined, if the law is to be taken literally and grammatically, to mean a man (that is, a "male communicant"), as noted in its canon by the use of the pronoun "him". The Convention is empowered to change this wording, if it chooses, to admit a wider interpretation of "Lay Deputies", but the change ought to be specific and all inclusive. This power rests in the General Convention to do this for itself; the power also rests in the Diocesan Synod or Convention to do the same thing. It would also appear that whatever precedents there may have been in the past are not now effective because this national Church has by a principle, perfectly acceptable in Canon Law for national Churches, admitted the laity to synodal conclaves. This Church has the right, new indeed as it may be in a national Church, to determine the nature of the deputies selected from among its laity. Where Constitution and Canons of General or Diocesan Conventions state explicitly, or imply implicitly, that deputies shall be "Laymen", and use in their canons the pronouns "he" or "him" or "his", the Constitutions will have first to be changed and then the Canons implementing them must be amended to bring them into conformity with the rest of the Church's legislation.

It appears to the Chairman of this Committee, although he may have personal qualms on admitting women to synods, that the objective study and arguments herewith presented lead us to admit the propriety of the Wickersham resolution. Technically, the resolution appears to be in order.

Your Chairman would suggest, however, that the proponents of the resolution have ready to introduce to the Convention certain changes in Canon II, Sec. V. (delete the word "male" in line 7, and change the pronoun "he" in lines 15 and 16) and Sec. VI. (delete the word "male" in line 5). The resolution to change the canon, if the Constitutional changes are finally ratified, would be contingent upon the affirmative vote of the Convention to change Art. IV, I of the Diocesan Constitution.

Respectfully submitted:

(Rev.) Ralph E. Coonrad, J.C.D.,
Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL HISTORY

During the year a check of all the material in our files, and information on our records, was made against the parishes and missions of the Diocese. It was found that over a hundred parishes and missions have never furnished us with any kind of historical data.

Since this is of importance to the Diocese, it is hoped that all churches will furnish us with information about the life of their parishes.

Parishes celebrating anniversaries are reminded to send us copies of any booklets or other publications which they are publishing.

We are now in the process of gathering information about the Institutions and other Organizations of the Diocese. We will publish a list in chronological order of their foundation, when the material is complete.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX T

REPORT OF THE CORPORATION FOR CHRISTIAN WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

The Corporation had an active year with several meetings for business, and one conference for students, and one retreat. Noteworthy was a meeting of the Corporation in November 1953, with the Rev. Roger Blanchard, National Executive Secretary for College Work, in the Christian Association at the University of Pennsylvania. A complete review was made of the student work of this Diocese in relation to the national work. The clergy doing college work had opportunity in the afternoon to discuss their problems with the Rev. Mr. Blanchard. In the evening problems of policy and finance were discussed with him. The relation of this Corporation to the National Church Society for College Work in solicitation of funds was especially investigated with a view to correlating their drives. Opportunities for work with faculty, now being promoted by Dr. Scott-Craig of the National Division of College Work, was also explored. Mr. Blanchard's visit was part of his general survey of all dioceses to obtain a complete picture of college work of this Church in the United States. We found his visit most helpful.

A Conference with the theme "Roadblocks to Faith for Thinking People" was led by the Rev. John Krumm, Chaplain of Columbia University, in early December, 1953, for students of the Diocese. About thirty attended either the afternoon or evening sessions in the Christian Association. Early in March, 1954, a twenty-four hour retreat for students was held in the Fellowship House in Whitemarsh. Fifteen students attended, and were directed in their meditations on the subject, "The Sovereignty of God" by Dr. Edward Hopkin, professor at the Philadelphia Divinity School and a member of this Corporation.

The regular work of the Church on the central campus of the Diocese, the University of Pennsylvania, continued to be based on St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, on Sundays and at the Christian Association, just off the campus, on weekdays. The work of the Chaplain to Episcopal students, who is also Executive Secretary of the Corporation, centered on encouraging attendance at the stated services of St. Mary's. Programs of interest to students were held Sunday evenings after Evening Prayer at St. Mary's. Speakers were heard at luncheons on Thursdays in the Christian Association. A study program on the Bible and aspects of our faith was undertaken at the Christian Association in cooperation with other Churches. Regular weekday celebrations of the Eucharist on Wednesdays were maintained as usual. Entertainment of students at St. Mary's House, the residence of the Chaplain, was continued as one means of reaching students who often cannot be found in their rooms. Visiting in the hospitals and dormitories was done when need and opportunity presented.

New work was begun at Haverford College under the direction of the Rev. Hadley Williams at St. Mary's, Ardmore, with the assistance of a student from the Philadelphia Divinity School.

The Rev. J. MacNeal Wheatley resigned from his ministry to Temple students in the middle of the college year after two years' successful work there, and the Corporation appointed the Rev. Robert Harris of the Church of the Annunciation as his successor. At the same time the Corporation gave encouragement to the new University Christian Movement, an ecumenical venture, at Temple and expressed the desire of this Church to cooperate with it as far as the faith and order of the Church allowed.

Vital and successful work continues as usual at Lincoln and Ursinus by the Reverends Matthew Davis and Edward Platts respectively. Cheney State Teachers College is ministered to by the Rev. H. Albion Ferrell. Beaver students receive the help of the Rev. Louis Fifer at All Hallows, Wyncote. Divinity students carry on at Drexel and the School of Pharmacy from St. Andrew's and the Atonement. After a year's lapse the Rev. Lawrence Whittemore has again undertaken a ministry to Swarthmore students. The students in the many small colleges and professional schools in the downtown Philadelphia area are attracted to Trinity Club at Holy Trinity Church by a large and varied program under the guidance of the Rev. Edward Pollanick. Pennsylvania Military College students attend services at St. Paul's, Chester, and Bryn Mawr students at the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, and the Good Shepherd, Rosemont.

The main centers of student life in the Diocese receive an adequate ministry, but much remains to be done to deepen and strengthen this work. The Diocese must awake to the urgent needs of influencing young men and women at this critical stage of life, and of raising up leaders for the Church in the next generation.

APPENDIX U

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF STUDY APPOINTED TO CONSIDER THE RESOLUTION OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A. Preliminary

In Diocesan Convention of 1953 Spencer Ervin, Esq. offered the following Preambles and Resolution which were referred to the Committee on Resolutions: (Journal pp 32-33)

"WHEREAS this Church is a constituent member of The National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America;

AND WHEREAS The National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America is publishing statements and establishing policies opposed to the Faith and Order of this Church and detrimental to its interests;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this 169th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania respectfully represents the foregoing to our National Council for such action as it may deem appropriate, and instructs the Secretary of this Convention to transmit to the Secretary of our National Council an attested copy of this Resolution and its Preambles."

The Committee on Resolutions recommended that Mr. Ervin's Resolution "be referred to a committee of study to be appointed by Bishop Hart to consider the same and report at the next convention of the Diocese for appropriate action."

After adjournment of Convention, Bishop Hart appointed to this special committee of study: The Rev. Ernest A. deBordenave, the Rev. Charles E. Greene, the Rev. Charles E. Hopkin, Messrs.

Martin W. Clement, Donald Jenks, Albert Nesbitt, Thomas B. K. Ringe. Subsequently Mr. Ringe was replaced by Mr. Harold Goodwin, Jr.; The Rev. Charles E. Greene being named convener.

At the first meeting of the Study Committee on May 22, 1953, the convener was duly elected Chairman by the quorum of members present, and procedures to be followed were determined. Meetings two to five inclusive were devoted to hearing Mr. Ervin in support of his resolution. At the meeting on June 22nd, 1953, (No. 3) the Rev. Anthony P. Treasure of Norwalk, Conn., and the Rev. Philip Fifer of this Diocese were heard in support of Mr. Ervin's resolution. Subsequent meetings, three in number, were for the purpose of hearing further evidence, either pro or con; and to prepare for the Convention.

Under date of January 29th, 1954, evidence received in support of the resolution was made available to all members of the Convention. Notice of its availability was made known by letter, directed to the Rectors of all Parishes in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, as follows:

"Reverend Sirs:

Bound copies of the evidence supporting Mr. Spencer Ervin's Resolution (see page 32, 1953 Diocesan Journal), introduced at the 169th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, are available in Room 23 of the Church House for examination on the premises. Notice of the availability of this material is to be given by you to the Lay Delegates from your Parish.

If you would care to appear before this Committee to give evidence, arrangements are to be made upon application to the undersigned.

Faithfully yours,

The Study Committee ruled at its first meeting that it would consider such publications as had been issued only under the authority of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America, or, in the case of THE THINGS MOST SURELY BELIEVED AMONG US, those publications listed by The National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America as providing "maximum effectiveness" to the study of the subject of the "Protestantism and Roman Catholicism in Relation to Christian Personality, the Family and the Democratic way of Life." The committee ruled also that Mr. Ervin's resolution raises no question of the continuance or discontinuance of the membership of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America, and that no evidence or argument bearing on continuance or discontinuance would be received.

The publications issued under authority of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America which the Study Committee had considered are:

THE THINGS MOST SURELY BELIEVED AMONG US

WHAT PROTESTANTS BELIEVE—Kerr

THE WHY OF PROTESTANTISM—Adams

PROTESTANTISM AFFIRMS—Garrison

PROTESTANTISM AFFIRMS—Garrison

OUR PROTESTANT HERITAGE—Calvert

The Study Committee permitted reference to be made to the NATIONAL COUNCIL OUTLOOK, a monthly publication.

Publications recommended by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America in its pamphlet, THE THINGS MOST SURELY BELIEVED AMONG US, which received careful consideration at the hands of the Study Committee were five books, as follows:

THE FAITH OF A PROTESTANT—W. Burnet Easton

PRIMER FOR PROTESTANTS—James H. Nichols

BE GLAD YOU'RE A PROTESTANT—Henry C. Munro

ROMANISM AND THE GOSPEL—C. Anderson Scott

PROTESTANTISM: A SYMPOSIUM—Various Authors

B. The Merits

The assertion in the second Preamble to Mr. Ervin's Resolution that the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America "is publishing statements and establishing policies opposed to the Faith and Order of this Church and detrimental to its interests," seems to the Study Committee to present the following questions:

What is the doctrinal character of the statements and policies complained of; that is, what is their teaching?

How does this character compare with the official teaching of the Episcopal Church as expressed in the Book of Common Prayer and other official sources?

If there is an opposition, is it such as to be detrimental to the interests of our Church?

In answer to the above, the Study Committee feels that a reasonable case had been presented by Mr. Ervin and evidence submitted by witnesses that give cause for concern. The publications reviewed in relation to Anglican formularies evidence the promotion of a body of doctrine that is in opposition to the teaching of the Episcopal Church. They are not to the interest of the Episcopal Church because they imply its assent by virtue of its membership in the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America. Due to the official nature of these publications by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America, their promotion cannot be considered other than a part of its planned program, a definite item of its policy, and thus with effect to the Episcopal Church.

After careful and deliberate consideration the Study Committee finds it in order to suggest that these actions of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America are outside the reasons for its organization. The National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America disclaims any purpose to become a "super-church," in its Constitution it states "It shall have no authority to prescribe a common creed." It should not, therefore, be construed as disloyalty or unwarranted criticism to express concern over violations by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America of its own formularies.

In answering a protest to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church, The Rev. Dr. C. Rankin Barnes, Secretary, replied on October 12, 1951, for the Council, as follows:

"We frankly admit our concern over such doctrinal statements as OUR PROTESTANT HERITAGE and WHAT PROTESTANTS BELIEVE. If such publications were to continue we might well, as a Church, voice a vigorous protest, because we believe that the National Council of Churches is going outside of its province in attempting to make doctrinal statements which could be approved by all constituent members. We cannot believe that Eastern Orthodox members are any happier than are Episcopalians over such inadequate doctrinal statements as cited above."

Since Dr. Barnes' reply was issued, both of the publications mentioned in the above paragraph have been re-issued, OUR PROTESTANT HERITAGE on October 4, 1952, and WHAT PROTESTANTS BELIEVE on March 7, 1952 and October 4, 1952. It would seem consistent therefore in view of the opinion of the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church, to voice anew complaints against this type of publication.

The Committee of Study, appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, believes that the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church is the proper body to which such concern should be expressed.

This committee, being of the opinion that Mr. Ervin's Resolution, as presented to Diocesan Convention of 1953, should not be adopted because of the unqualified statement contained in its second preamble, therefore submits the following to this Convention for its consideration:

WHEREAS the Protestant Episcopal Church is a constituent member of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America;

AND WHEREAS, it is the opinion of this Convention, based upon the findings submitted to it by its Committee of Study, that a reasonable case has been presented and evidence submitted which gives cause for concern pertaining to the publishing of certain pamphlets by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the report and recommendations of the Committee of Study be and hereby are approved, and that this 170th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania respectfully presents the foregoing to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church for such action as it may deem appropriate, and instructs the Secretary of this Convention to transmit an attested copy of the report of the Committee of Study, together with Preambles, to the Secretary of the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church.
